Wedler Confession In Sheppard Killing Hoax, Probers Say

Ohio Authorities Find Discrepancies In Convict's Story

DELAND, Fla., July 23 (P)—Donald J. Wedler's assertion that he killed Marilyn Sheppard is a complete hoax, three Cleveland authorities said today.

"He's a thousand miles off," said James E. McArthur, who was Cleveland chief of detectives during the investigation of the sensational July 4, 1954, slaying and came out of retirement to check Wedler's story.

"He has a general knowledge of the case and no specific knowledge," said Dr. Samuel Gerber, coroner of Cuyahoga County, Ohio. "What he has is a knowledge he might have got out of magazines and newspapers."

McArthur, Gerber and Dave Yettra, deputy sheriff of Cuyahoga County, talked with Wedler more than four hours.

Wedler Becomes Angry

Sheriff Rodney Thurstby who has Wedler, 23, in Volusia County Jail on a Florida charge of prison escape, said he told Cleveland officials basically the same story he gave Thurstby last week—how while attempting to burglarize a house in Cleveland he hit a woman over the head with an iron pipe.

After talking with Wedler, they told him they didn't believe his story, Gerber said.

Before that, he was calm, the coroner reported, but when he heard that "he got aggravated and angry and said: 'I give details as remembered. If they don't jibe, that's your end to clear up.'"

The wounds of Mrs. Sheppard's head could not have been made with a piece of plumber's pipe such as Wedler described, Gerber said.

26th Confession

One major discrepancy throughout Wedler's story has been the number of times he said he struck the woman. He said it was two or three times when he first told his story July 15. In a retelling, he raised it to three or four. Today, officials said, he went up to five.

Mrs. Sheppard was dealt 35 blows, Cleveland authorities said. This was the 26th confession to the slaying of Mrs. Sheppard, Gerber said, and like all the others, investigation proved it was false. He said Dr. Samuel Sheppard, who is serving life for his wife's slaying, had a fair trial, a vigorous defense and a competent review before higher courts.

U.S. Proposes ROK Army Cut But Rhee Balks

WASHINGTON, July 23 (P)—South Korean Ambassador Yun Chan Yang said today the United States has suggested a "considerable" reduction in the 700,000-man Korean armed forces.

He said President Syngman Rhee's government has turned down the proposal until a firm decision is reached on modernizing the arms of Korean forces.

Military authorities have announced that one of the two U. S. Army divisions now in Korea will be streamlined and reorganized with nuclear firepower as part of its punch.

Yang said in an interview that "responsible U. S. government officials have proposed a reduction in the number of our armed forces in Korea."

"My argument is," he continued, "how can we reduce our forces without knowing in advance what additional firepower can be given to our forces. That is putting the cart before the horse."

Enforcement Compromise Efforts Fail

Senate Turns Down Proposals Designed To Save Section 3

WASHINGTON, July 23 (P)—Senate supporters of the civil rights bill were defeated today in two attempts to save—by compromise amendments—most of the enforcement powers in Section 3 of the bill.

They appeared to be fighting a losing battle against a bipartisan move to strip the bill of all its enforcement powers except those protecting voting rights. A vote on this question comes tomorrow.

An amendment by Sen. Bricker (R - Ohio), which would have placed enforcement powers in the hands of the President instead of the attorney general, was rejected 61-29.

Cooper Proposal Rebuffed

The Senate then proceeded to crush with an 81-8 vote a second compromise proposal by Sen. Cooper (R-Ky). Cooper's amendment would have permitted the attorney general to intervene in civil rights cases only after an individual complained that a conspiracy existed to deny him rights in defiance of a court order.

Continuing its late-hour sessions on the bill, the Senate finally recessed at 7:54 p.m. until 10 a.m. tomorrow.

As Section 3 now stands, the attorney general can start injunction suits to prevent violations of a wide variety of civil rights. It has been fought bitterly by Dixie Democrats, who call it a weapon to force racial integration of the schools in the South.

The seven senators who supported Cooper on his amendment were Bush (Conn.), Dirksen (Ill.), Morton (Ky.), Wiley (Wis.), and Revercomb (W.Va.), all Republicans, and Kefauver (Tenn.) and Mansfield (Mont.), Democrats.

Cooper Concedes Possible Defeat

Forty Democrats and 21 Republicans united to defeat the Bricker amendment. Twenty-two Republicans and seven Northern Democrats voted on the other side. The 22 Republicans included Sen. Knowland of California, leader of the coalition supporting the civil rights bill.

Cooper conceded in advance that his proposal probably would be rejected and that the amendment to strip down Section 3 would probably be adopted.

But he said he thought his amendment was a middle ground which could "mark an advance" in the direction of protecting some rights besides voting rights.

Bricker told the Senate Section 3 as now constituted gives almost unlimited powers to the attorney general.

Bomber With 10 Aboard Explodes

HONOLULU, July 23 (P)—A Navy patrol bomber carrying 10 men exploded in the air today immediately after takeoff and crashed in the Pacific 300 yards off Barber's Point Naval Air Station.

The Navy said there was no sign of any survivors, but crash boats and helicopters were searching the area.

Clinton Verdict Greeted With Tears And Bravado

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., July 23 (P)—Tears . . . accord . . . bravado . . . surprise . . . consternation . . . glum silence.

All these emotions greeted an all white jury's verdict finding Northern segregationist John Kasper and six Tennessee defendants guilty of criminal contempt of U. S. District Court in the Clinton segregation trial today.

Tears — hysterical tears — came from young Carolina Cook, small daughter of Clyde Cook, 65, Oak Ridge, Tenn., fireman and one of those convicted. Her parents and friends were unable to comfort the heartless little girl after jury foreman Powell May intoned the word "Guilty" after Cook's name.

Cook was accused, among other things, of the bloody beating of the Rev. Paul Turner, pastor of Clinton's First Baptist church. Turner was assaulted on the town square of Clinton after escorting six Negro children to integrated Clinton High last Dec. 4.

Kasper, the lanky, owl-eyed former Washington, D.C., bookseller and White Citizens Council leader who came to this area a year ago as a stranger, expressed a mixture of bravado and philosophical resignation.

"I am going to Nashville when school opens to oppose integration down there," he said. He added, like the others, that he was "surprised" by the verdict.

Later, glum and brooding, he philosophized: "I'm mighty sorry for the other people. They've been put through so much and persecuted. For myself, you can't expect to be a winner if you don't lose one once in awhile."

Convicted

In a surprise verdict, an all-white jury at Knoxville, Tenn., yesterday convicted seven of the 11 defendants in the Clinton criminal contempt trial. Found guilty were (top, left to right), John Kasper, Lawrence J. Brantley, William J. Brakebill and Alonzo Bullock; bottom, left to right, Clyde Cook, Mrs. Mary Nell Currier and Willard H. Till. Verdict Stuns Segregation Trial Defense

White Jury Frees Four Of Clinton 10 In Contempt Case

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., July 23 (P)—An all-white jury in a surprise verdict today convicted segregation leader John Kasper and six codefendants in the Clinton criminal contempt trial.

They face up to six months in jail and fines up to $1,000 or both. The jury, which had been exhorted by defense lawyers to preserve the traditional "southern way of life," deliberated two hours and 20 minutes before bringing in its verdict convicting seven of the 11 defendants of all three counts in the 12-day-old trial in U. S. District Court here. The other four were acquitted.

Defense lawyers, who had confidently predicted a mass acquittal, appeared dazed as jury foreman Powell May, Knoxville, intoned the word "Guilty" after each of the seven names.

Chief Defense Counsel Robert L. Dobbs of Memphis, his face flushed and angry-red, refused to concede that the verdict constituted a heavy blow to pro-segregation forces, who are fighting against the mixing of whites and Negroes in Dixie schools.

New Trial Motion Filed

Previously, defense spokesmen had characterized the trial as a "history-making" event and declared that its outcome would exert a strong influence on the future course of court-ordered integration in the South.

"This lawsuit isn't over yet," Dobbs said firmly. "We have filed a motion for a new trial. If that is denied, we will appeal to a higher court."

U. S. Dist. Atty. John C. Crawford Jr., the lanky, booming-voiced prosecutor who conducted the government's case, took the victory for his side without apparent elation.

"My staff and I endeavored to try this case like any government case. The jury has spoken by its verdict. I have no other comment," he told newsmen.

Convicted along with Kasper, accused by the government of fomenting racial strife at Clinton last fall when 12 Negroes were admitted to the previously all-white high school there, were:

William J. Brakebill, 41, Clinton service station operator.

Housewife Convicted

Alonzo Bullock, 52, part-time preacher and Clinton carpenter.

Clyde Cook, 26, Oak Ridge, Tenn., fireman.

Mrs. Mary Nell Currier, 39, Clinton housewife and mother of two children.

Willard H. Till, 43, Oak Ridge machinist.

The judge told defense lawyers he would give them 20 days to file their motion for a new trial if it is within his discretion to extend the time for filing appeals. He said he had been advised by the court clerk that five days is the maximum.

Specifically, Kasper and the others were charged with criminal contempt of court. The government accused them of knowingly violating a court order forbidding interference with orderly integration of Clinton High.

The four defendants acquitted were:

Clifford Carter, 33, jobless truck driver; Edward Henson Nelson, 22, grocery clerk; Virgil Cleo Nelson, 23, carpenter; and Raymond Wood, 35, Clinton house painter.

Originally, 18 Clinton residents and Kasper were charged with conspiring to violate U. S. Dist. Judge Robert L. Taylor's injunction barring interference with the court-ordered racial integration of Clinton High. Clinton is 20 miles northwest of Knoxville.

Two Men And Boy Die In Plane Crash

NEWPORT, R.I., July 23 (P)—Two men and a little boy died today when their four-place plane plunged into the sea six miles northwest of Block Island.

Papers identified them as John F. Danko, Jackson Heights, N.Y., and Francis J. Lavello, operator of a cleaning establishment in Scarsdale, N.Y. Both had pilot's licenses.

The little boy presumably was Danko's son, Johnny.

Brutal Killer Slays Trucker, Two Women

HOBBS, N. M., July 23 (P)—A cold-blooded killer shot a truck driver and two young women to death along two New Mexico roads early today.

The truck driver was J. D. Cantrell, 27, Carlsbad, N. M. He was killed after he stopped to help the two women fix a flat tire alongside U. S. 180 about 36 miles west of this southeastern New Mexico city.

The women, whose bodies were discovered hours later by an oil field employee on an isolated road, were Mrs. Barbara Edwards Lemmons, 23, and Mrs. Dorothy Fern Gibson, 23, both of Hobbs.

All three were shot to death with a .22 caliber weapon, which gave rise to speculation that the killer might be the same gunman who yesterday morning killed two policemen in El Segundo, Calif.

The officers were killed with the same caliber weapon, Police Capt. Lee Maxwell of El Segundo said the killer had escaped a trap there and would have had time to reach New Mexico.

Cantrell's body was discovered at 4:10 a.m. by another truck driver, Floyd Smith, Midland, Tex. Police said Smith's arrival at the scene probably came within minutes after the slaying. The motor of Cantrell's truck was still running and Cantrell's body was warm.

Police said lead from the bullets was found under his body, indicating that he had been shot at least once after he had fallen.

A search for Mrs. Gibson and Mrs. Lemmons began when their purses and other identification were found in the car. Also, a high school class ring belonging to Mrs. Lemmons was found on the ground near the car.

About six hours later, Bill Wilson, 35, an oil well switcher from Hobbs, discovered the bodies of the two women on the oil field road northwest of Hobbs and 25 miles from where Cantrell's body was found. The bodies were lying in a grassy draw, about eight yards apart.

The officers said that the women's clothing was intact, except that Mrs. Gibson's shoes were missing. There was no indication that they had been molested sexually.

Caesar, Coca Hope For Reunion On TV

NEW YORK, July 23 (P)—Television stars Sid Caesar and Imogene Coca said today they hope to reunite in a new half-hour show this fall. They once were TV's top comedy team.

"There's nothing definite yet," Caesar said in reference to a formal statement which read: "I am now engaged in discussions with the National Broadcasting Co. concerning the possibilities of scheduling a half-hour show next season in which I would be reunited with Imogene Coca."

In Detroit, where she is appearing in a stage show, Miss Coca said the whole idea of bringing them together again originated with Hal Janis, an NBC executive and former producer of their old "Show of Shows."

Oman Rebels Given Ultimatum By RAF

LONDON, July 23 (P)—British warplanes have showered rebel tribesmen with leaflets bearing a Royal Air Force ultimatum to the Sultan of Muscat and Oman.

Sir Bernard Burrows, British resident in the oil-rich Persian Gulf area, announced the ultimatum to newsmen at Bahrain today, and said RAF fighters from Alden will stage an "armed demonstration" if it is not heeded. He said a "shoot to kill" order would be issued to the airmen if the demonstration proved ineffective.

Both the ultimatum and a second leaflet calling on the inhabitants to rally to Britain's friend, 40-year-old Sultan Said bin Taimur, were dropped within a radius of 50 miles around Nizwa. Nizwa is the center of the rebellion launched four days ago by followers of Imam Ghaleb Ben Ali, religious ruler of Oman who was driven into exile in Saudi Arabia two years ago.

Some 1,500 rebels have seized control of 5,000 square miles of the Sultan's 82,000 square - mile kingdom of hot sand and mountains.

Tommy Manville, Tenth Wife Part

CHAPPAQUA, N.Y., July 23 (P)—Tommy Manville, the last of the oldtime playboys, said today he and his 10th wife have parted.

News of a rift in his two and a half month-long marriage to Folies girl Pat Gaston, 27, came as she returned East after a visit with relatives in San Antonio, Tex.

The 63-year-old Manville said his blonde, six-foot wife was staying with a girl friend in New York City and had refused to return to his home here.

He said she planned to spend a month thinking things over, but no divorce action has been started.

Manville, who said not long ago that divorce settlements from his previous marriages had him down to his last two million, indicated that if the new wife got a settlement it would be because the court ordered it.

Secretary of the Army Brucker, in asking Congress to knock out this proviso, said the Army has gone to "great expense" in sometimes unsuccessful efforts to educate soldiers even when they have been shown to be "totally inept and unsuitable."

Emerson said he had never noticed such expense account items "but if we had we probably would have asked about them."

McClellan didn't at the moment go into how such things would have appeared on hotel bills.

Emerson said he was a maintenance electrician by trade, not an experienced auditor. He said he and the other trustees never examined the expense accounts of Valente or Klenert very carefully — "we didn't see any reason to."

Klenert told reporters he can't recall ever buying a milk stool for anyone. As for a golfers lamp, he said he never heard of such a thing although he plays golf himself.

Before Emerson took the stand, the committee devoted more attention to a 1953 UTW committee report absolving Valente and Klenert of any misuse of union money in their buying expensive houses in the Washington suburbs.

It has been brought out that $57,000 of union money was used toward the purchase of two houses costing $95,000.

Joseph Jacobs, Atlanta, lawyer for the union, testified he and others who wrote the 1953 report knew the $57,000 had been used to buy the houses.

But Jacobs said, as Klenert testified, this was a device for concealing the money from possible dissident factions within the union. He said the money was repaid.

President George Meany of the AFL-CIO yesterday described the 1953 UTW report on Valente and Klenert as "a complete whitewash."

Revised School Bill Acceptable To Eisenhower

WASHINGTON, July 23 (P)—The House today began debating a 1½ billion dollar compromise school construction bill. The White House said President Eisenhower isn't wholly satisfied with the measure but would accept it.

Whether the bill will ever reach Eisenhower's desk was very much a question. House Republican Leader Martin (Mass.) described the bill's prospects as "not too good."

And Senate GOP Leader Knowland (Calif.) did not list it among legislation which he expects to come before the Senate later this year.

White House press secretary James C. Hagerty said flatly Eisenhower will sign the bill if it passes Congress.

Hagerty added, however, that Martin was quite correct in saying earlier in the day Eisenhower was "not entirely satisfied" with the bill as it now stands.

The measure before the House would give the states 300 million dollars in each of the next five years to help them build needed classrooms. The original Eisenhower proposal was for grants to total $1,200,000,000 over a four-year period.

There are some other differences, too, between the administration plan and the bill drafted by the House Education Committee.

Martin told newsmen of Eisenhower's misgivings about the House bill after he and other GOP congressional leaders conferred with the President at the White House. The top House Republican indicated at the same time Eisenhower probably would accept the measure.

Stassen's Son To Wed

WASHINGTON, July 23 (P)—The engagement of Glen Harold Stassen, son of the President's disarmament adviser Harold E. Stassen, was announced here today.

Young Stassen will marry Miss Dorothy Jean Lively, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl B. Lively of Linville, Va., on Aug. 31 at the first Baptist Church, Charlottesville, Va.

Stassen's son, 27, is a graduate of the University of Virginia and is employed by the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

His bride, 23, is a graduate of the University of Virginia and is employed by the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

'Clean Bomb' Talk May Hinder U.S. Disarmament Campaign, Scientists Say

WASHINGTON, July 23 (AP)—A. G. Lawrence, Edward Teller, and Mark M. Mills of the University of California Radiation Laboratory, said today the world's choice now is not so much between "clean" and "dirty" hydrogen bombs as between nuclear war and a world free of the scourge of nuclear weapons.

More than 50 scientists attached to the Los Alamos chapter of the Federation of American Scientists joined in a statement sent to President Eisenhower and others expressing concern that arguments made recently by three prominent scientists for continuing nuclear tests may hinder U.S. disarmament efforts.

The Los Alamos group's statement, entitled "putting nuclear weapons testing in perspective," referred to a call made on the President June 24 by Drs. Ernest

The statement said the views of the three California scientists—that an "absolutely clean" bomb—free of radioactive fallout—could be developed in four or five years, and that tests must go on in the interest of atomic energy research—were subject to interpretation as "an oblique attack on initial forms of the U. S. disarmament proposals."

As part of its "first step" disarmament plan, the United States has recently proposed that, under certain conditions, a 10-month ban be placed on testing of atomic-hydrogen weapons.

Every Effort Urged To Make Smoking Safe

WASHINGTON, July 23 (AP)—Dr. John R. Heller, director of the National Cancer Institute, said today every effort should be made to make smoking safe so long as people enjoy it.

"We have no intention of joining the antitobacco league," he told a House Government Operations subcommittee.

The subcommittee is studying advertising claims of filter cigarettes; its hearings have branched out into the general subject of cigarette smoking and lung cancer.

Today Heller reported: "There is mounting evidence that when tobacco is burned at about 800 degrees, there is a chemical change in certain hydrocarbons which bring about certain cancer causing compounds."

"We do not know which of these compounds is the culprit," he said that, obviously, further research is needed.

Dr. LeRoy E. Burney, head of the health service, testified "we do not have sufficient evidence at this time" to recommend that warning labels be placed on cigarette packages. Anyhow, he said he didn't think smokers would pay much attention if they were.

"I enjoy smoking myself," Burney said.

Section Of Grass, Garden Stolen

DETROIT, July 23 (AP)—Thieves didn't let any grass grow under their feet at Henry Hoeft's house. They took a six-by-six foot section of his prize bent grass lawn from the center of his yard last night.

That report came right behind one from Joseph Martino, who reported his backyard garden scooped up and carried away—growing vegetables and all.

Senator Blasts Bribes Ruling

WASHINGTON, July 23 (AP)—Sen. Williams (R-De) said today the Internal Revenue Bureau has ruled that corporations may charge off as business expense some bribes paid to foreign government officials.

"Reprehensible," Williams said of the ruling in a Senate speech. Williams quoted a March 11 letter of Russell C. Harrington, Internal Revenue commissioner, as saying that in some cases bribes had been regarded as "ordinary and necessary" business expenses.

"Although sharply defined federal or state policies are not in issue when bribes are paid to officials of a foreign government, the expenditures must still be 'ordinary and necessary' business expenses to be deductible," Harrington wrote Williams. "The illegitimate expenses of a legal business are generally considered unnecessary, even though expedient."

"Where, however, it is the foreign government itself which demands or acquiesces in the payment, so that legal recourse is not available to the taxpayer in the operation of his legal business, the service would find it difficult to sustain the position that the expenses were not ordinary and necessary to the taxpayer's business."

Game Almost Fatal To Child

BALTIMORE, July 23 (AP)—A game of cowboys and Indians nearly ended in death today for a 5-year-old boy who was accidentally hanged from a cellar beam with a piece of venetian blind cord.

Stanley Broseker was found blue and unconscious by his mother, who had been called to the cellar by Stanley's older brother, Wayne, 9.

She carried the boy to the backyard where he regained consciousness and went into convulsions. Neighbors carried him six blocks to South Baltimore General Hospital where he was treated for convulsions of the neck and given sedatives. Doctors said his condition was good.

Police said the brother had been playing cowboys and Indians in the cellar and Wayne fastened the cord around his brother's neck as Stanley stood on a table. When the 5-year-old stumbled and fell from the table, police said, Wayne rushed upstairs screaming for his mother.

An older brother, Albert, helped carry Stanley outside.

All Dead On Navy Plane, Rescuers Say

MILAN, Italy, July 23 (AP)—Italian Alpine guides today reached the wreckage of a U. S. Navy plane 7,000 feet up on bleak San Martino and radioed all aboard were dead.

The Navy said the plane had 11 men aboard when it took off from Casablanca Friday for Treviso, Italy. The rescue teams said they had found what appeared to be the remains of 15 or 16.

Man Held By Baltimore Police Collapses, Dies

BALTIMORE, July 23 (AP)—A 32-year-old man being held by police for possible recruitment to Crownsville State Hospital, collapsed and died today just as a psychiatrist arrived to examine him.

Police said the man, Julius F. Brown, a Negro, had been picked up earlier today for violation of his parole from the hospital. He had been sent to Crownsville June 13 and paroled July 13.

An autopsy showed the man died of bronchial pneumonia.

Bakers Union Officials Ask Cross To Quit

WASHINGTON, July 23 (AP)—Four vice presidents and the secretary - treasurer of the Bakers Union today demanded that union President James G. Cross resign. In a telegram to Cross, the group said that what it termed his "evasive and dishonest performance" before the Senate Rackets Investigating Committee "exposed . . . your unfitness" to hold the union office.

Cross testified before the committee last week and denied any wrongdoing but was unable to answer to the satisfaction of the senators some questions about his financial affairs. Sen. Kennedy (D-Mass.) told Cross at the windup that testimony showed Cross had collected some $39,000 in expense accounts, $30,000 of it "not supported by invoices or bills."

Signing the telegram to Cross were the following union vice presidents: Daniel E. Conway, Bethesda, Md.; John DeConcini, Upper Darby, Pa.; Archie Goodman, Glendale, Calif.; and Amos Miller, Chattanooga, Tenn. Also signing it were Curtis R. Sims, Bethesda, Md., secretary-treasurer suspended by the executive board earlier this year for making charges against Cross.

West Germans Arrest Elderly Widow In Mike-Studded Hotel On Spy Charge

BONN, Germany, July 23 (AP)—West German security agents reported today the arrest of a white-haired, 68-year-old widow on suspicion of spying for the Communists in her quiet hotel—a favorite spot for foreign diplomats.

The Federal Security Agency said Mrs. Charlotte Wallbruch was arrested on suspicion of treason after microphones were found under the floor of the rooms occupied by the diplomats.

But the key figure in the case, Gerhard Roller, 33, an architect from Communist East Berlin, has escaped to the East.

The security agents told this story: about two or three years ago Communist agents of the East zone espionage organization headed by Ernst Wollweber heard that the widow was in financial difficulties. They offered her money to turn her small private hotel in the resort suburb of Bad Godesberg into a spy nest.

Her guests included many diplomats, from Britain, Holland, Pakistan, Yugoslavia and Afghanistan. There were even Russians. N. W. Senin, counsellor of the Soviet Embassy, stayed there for a time.

Roller came from East Berlin and, on the pretext of repairing the hotel bell system, installed tiny microphones under the floorboards of each room.

These were connected to a recording apparatus in an attic.

There Roller spent hours recording the conversations of the unwary diplomats. The tape recordings were sent to Berlin in spools. The microphones, smaller than matchboxes, were so ingenious that they are being specially examined by the security agency.

The recordings were supplemented by reports from the widow written in invisible ink on the back of apparently innocent family letters. Sometimes she flew to Berlin to deliver reports personally—and also collect her pay.

She had been told to observe the movements of Chancellor Konrad Adenauer, whose residence is directly opposite the hotel on the other side of the Rhine.

The widow's Communist paymasters were so pleased with her efforts that they offered to reward her with enough money for her to buy the hotel of which she was only tenant. But, the agents said, she declined for fear that this would betray her.

Why did she turn spy? The agents said she did it just for the money and not because she was a Communist supporter.

Judge Who Would Lower Drinking Age To 18 Years Criticized By Clergymen

BALTIMORE, July 23 (AP)—A Church, said he thought military chief magistrate who voiced an opinion that if they're old enough to fight, they're old enough to drink, was criticized roundly today.

Magistrate Standley L. Richardson said yesterday that "my Christian brothers may condemn me for this, but I feel personally that if someone is old enough to fight for his country at 18, he is old enough to drink."

It is illegal to serve drinks to anyone under 21.

Several of his brothers did condemn his suggestion.

The Rev. Clare O'Dwyer, director of Baltimore's Catholic Youth Organization, said he did not "see the need of stimulants for youths. They have a natural vitality."

Town Groups May Use School Facilities Free

ROCKVILLE, Md., July 23 (AP)—The attorney general of Maryland has ruled that a school board may not charge community groups for use of public school facilities.

The decision affects a practice of the Montgomery County school board.

The opinion, released yesterday, provides that school authorities "must permit the free use of the buildings and grounds" by community groups for the "discussion of public questions or for other civic, social or recreational activities."

The question was raised by the Damascus Volunteer Fire Department, which received a bill for $62.50 for the use last October of the Damascus high school for its annual dinner.

Dr. David W. Zimmerman, Maryland assistant state school superintendents, said copies of the opinion have gone out to all superintendents in the state.

Under regulations adopted last Aug. 14, the Montgomery board charged for custodial services and for heat, light and power in some cases.

Mother Testifies At Bunch's Trial

BALTIMORE, July 23 (AP)—Meadow Bunch's mother testified today that her son was saying that his "boss man got killed" the day before Heinz Heymann's battered body was found.

Bunch is on trial before a three-judge court for the slaying of Heymann, proprietor of the German restaurant Deutches Haus. Heymann's body was found in the basement of his restaurant, his head beaten in with a blunt instrument and his wallet gone.

Mrs. Hattie Bunch, 57, said her son made the remark about his employer being dead on the afternoon of Saturday, April 27. Heymann's body was found on Sunday, April 28.

She also testified that Meadow paid her $10 that same day for his board.

Another witness, Royal Henry Johnson, common-law husband of Bunch's sister, told the court that on that day Bunch "said he owed me $20 and he paid it to me."

The state contends that between $400 and $600 was taken from Heymann.

When Benjamin Franklin was president of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania he remarked: "Fear God and your enemies will fear you."

Jury Is Asked To Investigate Traffic Deaths

The July term of Mineral County Circuit Court at Keyser opened yesterday with Judge Ernest A. See charging the grand jury to investigate homicide and area traffic deaths.

Clerk James A. Dixon pointed out that the most important case to be studied by the jurors is that of Clarence Simms, 22-year-old Negro of Keyser who is charged with stabbing his eight-week-old daughter to death June 28.

After the stabbing which reportedly stemmed from an argument with his wife, Simms drank rat poison and a disinfectant. He was hospitalized here for a while. His daughter, Kathy Ann, died following surgery.

Police said Simms used an ice pick on the child.

It has been the custom in past years not to have jury trials at the July term of court. However, the Simms case may make it necessary to have a jury this year.

Dixon said 18 witnesses were summoned to testify before the grand jury on a variety of cases.

Jurors include Abram T. Golds, worthy, Herman Davis, Howard Dixon, John Geoghegan, H. E. Clary, T. Warner Lowery, Harold Ridder and James Swadley of New Creek District; Vincent Cunningham and Seymour Whipp of Capon Run District; C. I. Homan, Welton District; Ray Johnson, Piedmont District; William A. Jenkins, Elk District and Fred Alt, Richard Deremer and Ellis Shanholtz, Frankfort District.

Funeral Rites Planned Today For Dr. Eagle

Physician Also Was Fruit Grower

MARTINSBURG, W. Va., July 23 — Funeral services for Dr. A. Bruce Eagle — physician, fruit grower, banker — will be held here tomorrow.

Eagle, 77, died yesterday at Eaglehurst, his suburban home here.

He was one of the pioneers in the development and marketing of apples in this orcharding center. He helped to organize the Martinsburg Fruit Exchange in 1918, referred to as the first pure cooperative in its field at the time, and served as its president for 10 years, until 1949.

He was president of the West Virginia Horticultural Society in 1932 and 1933.

He was born and reared on a farm near Upper Tract, Pendleton County, but settled here after receiving his doctor's degree from the University of Maryland Medical School in 1904 and interned at Davis Memorial Hospital at Elkins.

He conducted a general practice until forced to reduce his normal load within the last several years because of impaired health.

He served as city and county health officer during the 1918-1919 influenza epidemic and assisted in organizing the Eastern Panhandle Medical Society.

He helped to finance and was a heavy stockholder in a community-owned hotel here, The Shenandoah.

He served as president of the Peoples Trust Co. since 1946.

Although he never sought political office, he was a staunch Republican and took an avid interest in the local party.

His wife, the former Bess Harley of Martinsburg, died unexpectedly in 1953 at Charleston while attending a meeting of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Their only child, Mary Bruce Eyler, died some years ago. He is survived by a grandson, Bruce Eyler, who lived with Dr. Eagle since the death of his mother.

Woman Is Sought For Police Duty Here

An eight-year battle for a full-time policewoman is expected to be won in the very near future by Police Chief R. Emmett Flynn.

Police Commissioner William V. Keegan yesterday announced that applications for the position are being accepted in his and in the chief's offices.

Commissioner Keegan said a set of requirements has been compiled, and the woman selected for the job will be employed until such time as the Civil Service Board sets up a competitive test so as a selection can be made permanent.

Chief Flynn listed the requirements as follows:

- Graduate of high school, excellent health and physical condition, ability to deal effectively with juveniles, women and the public in general, to speak effectively before public groups, to be able to prepare reports and maintain records and to operate a typewriter.

Candidates must be not less than 25 years of age and not have reached their 35th birthday. She must have at least 20/30 vision in one eye and 20/20 in the other, normal hearing in both ears, must be five-foot six inches and not over five-foot nine. The minimum weight is 122 to 145.

The general requirements are freedom from a police record, possession of a Maryland driver's license, willingness to work at night and on weekends if required and willingness to wear a uniform.

Commissioner Keegan said the policewoman would receive a probationary officer's salary of $260 a month for one year, and then receive a full patrolman's salary of $296.50 after the first year.

Chief Flynn said the policewoman would perform specialized police duties with the primary objective of preventing and controlling the exploitation of women and children for commercial or immoral purposes and the prevention of delinquency among juvenile girls.

The chief said the work requires the use of discretion and mature judgment in conducting investigations and handling people.

Flynn said the policewoman will investigate cases involving neglected, abused or delinquent children, interviewing neighbors and families and contacting schools and social agencies.

The woman, Flynn said, will patrol bars, dance halls, bus terminals and similar places frequented by minors, and assist other police units in investigations of women criminals.

The chief said applicants must have a knowledge of social problems, particularly those which involve delinquency of juveniles and women, and must have a knowledge of causes of juvenile delinquency and the methods of handling such problems.

She must also have the ability to establish and maintain sympathetic working relationships with children and adults and to conduct a confidential investigation with good judgment and tact and to obtain information by interrogation and investigation.

Grocery Store Operation Is Disputed Here

An interesting equity suit has been docketed in Allegany County Circuit Court in connection with a dispute over operation of a grocery store at 400 Pennsylvania Avenue.

The suit, filed by Thomas N. Berry, attorney for John Earl Berkenbaugh and Mabel H. Berkenbaugh, his wife, against Leonard Holtzman and Juanita Holtzman, his wife, alleges that the Berkenbaughs were ejected from the store, which they had operated under an oral agreement since February 5, 1950.

The bill of complaint states that the plaintiffs entered into the agreement with the Holtzmans and took possession of the neighborhood grocery, known as "Len's Grocery."

The plaintiffs contend that they agreed to pay $150 per month rent and take over the inventory of stock amounting to $1,450. The rental was lowered to $120 per month in 1953 by agreement, the plaintiffs state.

The plaintiffs state they paid the rental May 31, 1957, which also included an apartment on one side of the store building.

Then, the complaint alleges, on June 28 of this year Holtzman appeared at the store about 8 p. m. and told Berkenbaugh that he was "taking over the store."

It was further alleged that Holtzman confiscated the money in the cash drawer, believed to be about $450. Berkenbaugh also complains that Holtzman also collected the accounts receivable from customers amounting to about $1,000.

Berkenbaugh said that the Holtzmans refused to give an accounting of the inventory on hand, amounting to about $2,500 worth of stock. No notice as required by law was given by Holtzman before taking possession of the store again, Berkenbaugh alleged in his complaint.

Associate Judge Morgan C. Harris has signed an order giving the defendants five days after the serving of the bill of complaint and order of court to show cause why an accounting should not be made as requested by the plaintiffs.

Board Is Planning Roadway To Northeast School

The Allegany County Board of Commissioners has authorized J. Walker Chapman, roads supervisor, to have a 250-foot length of roadway into the parking City of Cumberland. The road area of the new Northeast Elementary School on Valley Road, graded and surfaced with stone and asphalt.

Chapman said he inspected the area at the request of the Allegany County Board of Education, Oldtown Road to Irons Mountain, which wants the roadway completed before the new school is opened in September.

An offer of the Liller Brothers Asphalt Company to do the work for $921.80 was accepted by the board. The Liller firm is presently at work on the parking area at the school and has the necessary equipment on hand.

Chapman said a section about 1,000 feet long within the city limits is the responsibility of the City of Cumberland. The roadway which the county will have constructed will be 20 feet wide, graded and surfaced with stone and asphalt.

Theodore Swanger appeared before the board to ask that the pairs be made to the Moore's area at the request of the Allegany County Board of Education, Oldtown Road to Irons Mountain, which wants the roadway completed before the new school is opened in September.

Swanger said the property along the mile section which is owned by a woman entirely at work on the parking area at the school and has the necessary equipment on hand.

It was brought out that the board to ask permission to dig a three-foot wide ditch along the roadway in WPA a distance of 175 feet along the lane was hardsurfaced in the Zihlman Parkersburg Road in the Zihlman area but the one-mile section involved could not be paved for lack of right of ways.

The excavation will be for the installation of a new gas line.

City Is Asked To Fill In Open Ditch

Residents of the Wempe Drive area told the Mayor and Council Monday that an open ditch had been causing offensive odors and breeding insects and rats in the area for as long as 20 years. They demanded something be done to correct the problem which they termed a health hazard, particularly to children playing there.

Spokesman for the group was Eugene Martin who said residents wanted action now, not in two or three years, and invited council to the site to "smell the odor" first hand. He claimed if the situation existed in other sections of town, specifically Fayette or Washington Streets, something would be done.

Street Commissioner William H. Buchholtz explained that the city has an investigation underway. The problem is one for the Health Department but it was pointed out, the Health Department says it is a city responsibility.

Finan told the group they could take up the matter with the Health Department.

Homer Berry of 221 Mary Street, questioned one of the appointments made Monday to the sewage treatment plant. Council approved the appointment of John W. Kreitzburg as City Engineer Charles R. Nuzum Operator No. 1; Harry W. Wotring as Operator No. 2 and John Finan had been to the site and from preliminary inspection it appeared repair of the situation would be costly. One figure mentioned around City Hall today was $50,000.

Buchholtz asked the delegation how long the ditch had existed. That includes all of them from 1956.

Mental Case Airing Slated

The Allegany County Board of Commissioners yesterday discussed a problem which has arisen over the taking of persons to Sylvan Retreat, the county mental institution, by City Police.

A meeting will be sought with city officials in an attempt to iron out the trouble, according to Commissioner William H. Lemmert, board president.

It was brought out that City Police have taken persons to the institution on warrants, sometimes after midnight.

One man, a parolee from Springfield State Hospital, was taken to the institution recently and a mental examination given, according to James G. Stevenson, board clerk. This cost the county $10 and if the proper procedure had been followed it would have been discovered that the man was on parole from the state mental institution.

Most recent case was that of a transient from Tennessee who was taken to the institution, according to the records of the board. The man was dirty and hungry and should have been kept at the city lockup, according to procedures of the board, Lemmert said.

The commissioners said they were agreeable to handle cases of persons who are mentally affected when the city has them in custody, but they want the procedures followed in admitting these persons.

The parliament of New Zealand has only one house of 80 members.

Importance Of Airport Cited By Aviation Official

The director of the State Aviation Commission, here Monday to appear before the Mayor and Council, emphasized the importance of an airport to a city and urged Cumberland to fight to maintain air service provided by Allegheny Airlines.

Rudolph Drennan told council the city should take an active part in the airlines' case to be heard in Washington in September. Allegheny wants to drop Cumberland from its route and get out of the "short haul" category.

Drennan said "it is our duty" to fight to keep the airline and seek to have service improved. He pointed out that Allegheny is not the only airline seeking changes. Others, he added are asking that their structure be overhauled.

Drennan lauded improvements for the local port, including installation of a homing beacon, and he added that the local site, with a few minimum changes, should be adequate to take care of the type of planes being constructed in the jet age.

An airport, he said, is necessary to a city from the standpoint of industry and he pointed to the number of corporate planes using airports across the country.

Drennan had praise for City Attorney Thomas B. Finan who has been active in previous cases involving local airline service. Finan told Drennan the city had been made aware at various times that the local port does not lend itself to night or foggy day landings, and that it had been estimated another $300,000 to $400,000 investment would solve the situation. But it has been questioned, Finan continued, whether it is wise to spend that money in view of the future use of helicopters.

The Aviation Commission director also visited in Garrett County Monday.

Trains Moving Slowly At Wreck Scene

Traffic is moving under "reduced speed" orders at Garrett and piles of unattached wheels, cargo and twisted steel littered on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad tracks following Saturday's 12-car wreck there.

The two main lines and a siding have been cleared for use, although some of the wreckage still must be cleared, B&O officials said last night.

Saturday's derailment followed by 16 hours a three-car wreck John F. Morvay, 51, of Pitts- near Glencoe on the same line, burch, an assistant car foreman, was admitted to Meversdale Community Hospital with head injuries he sustained when a big crane was moving a box car, George M. Lark, 57, of RD 1, Ridgeley, earlier was admitted to Memorial Hospital in Cum- berland after his leg was caught between two rails.

Other cars were overturned on the bank of the Casselman River and piles of unattached wheels, cargo and twisted steel littered the section over a 500-foot area. Two cars which were loaded with explosives did not derail, how- ever, and were cleared from the scene.

Two crewmen were injured and another was killed during week- end operations in the same area. John F. Morvay, 51, of Pitts- near Glencoe on the same line, burch, an assistant car foreman, was admitted to Meversdale Community Hospital with head injuries he sustained when a big crane was moving a box car, George M. Lark, 57, of RD 1, Ridgeley, earlier was admitted to Memorial Hospital in Cum- berland after his leg was caught between two rails.

Money Needed For Bonus Pay

CHARLESTON, W. Va., July 23.—Gov. Underwood has been advised the state should raise an additional $200,000 to $300,000 per year to finance the 18½ million dollar Korean bonus bond issue.

Asst. Treasurer Fred Diddle told the governor that the additional money would make the bonds more salable.

Underwood issued his call today for an extraordinary session of the Legislature to consider the problem of floating the bonds in order to finance bonus payments for an estimated 71,000 West Virginia veterans of the Korean fighting. The lawmakers will convene here Aug. 5.

In his call, the governor asked the Legislature to raise the 3½ per cent interest ceiling placed on the bonds at the last session of the lawmakers.

He also asked the lawmakers to consider ways of procuring more money than the $1,800,000 a year appropriated by the regular session of the legislative body.

This money was provided by hiking the retail price of liquor by an average of 25 cents on each fifth. The price raise went into effect July 1.

Visit From Zhukov Might Be Helpful

It will be interesting to see whether Moscow picks up the hint dropped by President Eisenhower that he would welcome an exchange of visits between Marshal Zhukov and Secretary of Defense Wilson. The President contended it might serve a useful purpose and could hardly do any harm.

Defense ministers are in no position to make firm commitments for the governments they represent. But such an exchange might give Washington an opportunity at that to find out a little more about what has been going on lately in Russia and about Zhukov's present status in the communist hierarchy.

It seems fairly obvious that Mr. Eisenhower is counting on a chance to talk with Marshal Zhukov informally if he comes to Washington. The two got along together well enough when both were top military commanders in Berlin and one can hardly blame the President for feeling that this is one Russian he can talk to.

Most persons take a more jaundiced view of the possibilities of such personal diplomacy. But if it is necessary to deal with the Russians, there may be no harm in trying to find out what Marshal Zhukov thinks and how much weight he swings in the new set-up in the Kremlin.

Incidentally, Mr. Eisenhower's frank admission that he found it difficult to cope with Marshal Zhukov in an ideological debate over the relative merits of the communist and American systems should surprise no one. Every top communist is drilled for years on end in the dogma of Marxism and Leninism until he can repeat it like a parrot.

These Days

By George E. Sokolsky

The Father To The Child

Mr. Justice Brennan of the Supreme Court sired the Jencks decision which effectively opens the FBI files to defendants in courts. Actually this is what is already beginning to happen and the FBI will sooner or later have to withdraw their data in a case because they are bound not to disclose the source of their information. This could happen in a kidnapping case.

Now, going back to June 25, 1953, there is a case, The State of New Jersey v. John Henry Tune in which Judge William J. Brennan, the same who now sits on the Supreme Court of the United States, gave the dissenting opinion. It is an interesting opinion because it is the forerunner, the parent, as it were, of the Jencks decision.

This was a murder case involving a confession. The defendant wanted to inspect his confession and other papers in the prosecutor's file. Chief Justice Vanderbilt, a really great jurist, wrote the decision permitting the inspection of some documents but not of the entire file. From this decision, Judge William J. Brennan dissented. The majority opinion stated:

"In criminal proceedings long experience has taught the courts that often discovery will lead not to honest fact-finding, but on the contrary to perjury and the suppression of evidence. Thus the criminal who is aware of the whole case against him will often procure perjured testimony in order to set up a false defense."

This is so true. After all, the criminal's business is to commit a crime and to get away with it. For murder, he might get a death sentence or life imprisonment, depending upon the state in which he is being tried; for perjury, he gambles five to 20 years of his life.

Mr. Justice Brennan says: "That old hobgoblin perjury, invariably raised with every suggested change in procedure to make easier the discovery of the truth, is again disinterred from the grave where I had thought it was forever buried under the overwhelming weight of the complete rebuttal supplied by our experience in civil causes where liberal discovery has been allowed . . ."

Then this New Jersey judge who so suddenly raised to the United States Supreme Court to fit the political requirement of the moment said:

"This anachronistic apprehension that liberal discovery if extended to criminal causes will 'inevitably' bring the serious and sinister dangers of perjury in its wake will seem strange to many when coming from this court which has been generally commended for its aggressive sponsorship of liberal discovery and effective pretrial procedures in civil causes and can point to the solid evidence of its beneficial results to the cause of justice without that defeat of justice through perjury foretold by the prophets of doom . . ."

There is more of this, but it is apparent that the judge does not understand the difference between civil and criminal cases just as he does not understand the difference between a raw file in the FBI and a file readied for presentation, just as he does not understand the difference between the functions of American political parties and the Kremlin-controlled Communist Party.

This is Mr. Justice Brennan's description of the taking of a confession:

"The charge is murder in the first degree, allegedly committed on August 22, 1952. In the early morning hours from 12:20 a. m. to 5 a. m. of August 24, in custody and without counsel and surrounded only by police officers, the accused had 'conversations' with Detective Lieutenant Neidorf during which not the accused but the lieutenant wrote down 14 pages of 'narrative' which when completed the accused read aloud, had it read back to him by one of the officers, and signed."

To this Justice Brennan objected. Precisely how, in a case involving murder, would he have had the confession prepared? Would he have called in a blonde stenographer or would he have had the man arrested for murder talk into a dictating machine? The defendant said, two months later, that he could not remember what he had said in his confession. That is a little hard to believe because this is a man up for murder and one would imagine that his peril would whet his memory. But Justice Brennan believed him.

At any rate, in this 1953 decision, the Justice would make it practically impossible for the prosecution to win a case even against a murderer by careful and secret preparation.

Senate Should Learn Lesson From 1893 Report

By David Lawrence

WASHINGTON — Three words — "Lest We Forget"—might well be included conspicuously among the millions of words being recorded in the Senate debate on the so-called "Civil Rights" bill.

Will history repeat itself, and will Congress again tamper with the machinery of local elections under the guise of protecting the right to vote? Senator Allen J. Ellender of Louisiana, Democrat, in his speech in the Senate the other day, referred to comprehensive reports to the House of Representatives by its own committees in 1893 which tell the shocking story of what Federal intervention in local elections means and why Congress repealed then the very same type of statutes now being proposed for passage.

There is a significant analogy to present-day events. The Federal intervention took place not alone in the south, but in other regions, under laws — known as "Force Bills"—passed in the emotional days that followed the War Between the States. Federal agents and deputy marshals and supervisors were appointed to guard local elections — to insure "purity of the ballot." Scandals ensued. The House of Representatives chose the New York City area to examine how these laws were being applied. Here in part is what the investigating committee formally reported to the House on January 27, 1893:

"Your committee, after a very careful study of the operations of the Federal election laws before election and on election days in the City of New York, are of the opinion that all of these laws have entirely failed to produce any good results in the direction of the purity of elections or the protection of the ballot box, and have been productive of such serious and dangerous results that they ought at once to be repealed."

Later in the year, a report was submitted to the House by the committee to which the various bills for the repeal of the statutes had been referred. It said:

"How then can the United States, by its supervisors and deputy marshals, . . . scrutinize the registration — a condition of suffrage in many of the states — when the right of suffrage emanates from the state itself and the state alone can determine it? . . ."

"Many of these statutes also impose penalties upon the election officers of the states, in the conduct of elections, for a violation of the state laws. Was ever a more monstrous proposition written on the statute books of a free country? . . ."

"In many of the great cities of the country and in some of the rural districts, under the force of these federal statutes, personal rights have been taken from the citizens and they have been deprived of their liberty by arrest and imprisonment. . . ."

"Finally, these statutes should be speedily repealed because they mix state and federal authority and power in the control and regulation of popular elections, thereby causing jealousy and friction between the two governments; because they have been used and will be used in the future as a part of the machinery of a political party to reward friends and destroy enemies; because under the practical operations of them the personal rights of citizens have been taken from them and justice and freedom denied them; because their enactment shows a distrust of the states, and their inability or indisposition to properly guard the elections, which, if ever true, has now happily passed away."

This report emphasized that the wording of the Constitution gives only the state legislatures the right to prescribe the qualifications of voters. Congress was impressed and repealed the laws.

Today a majority in Congress are proposing to set up a Civil Rights Commission with the power of subpoena, and also a Civil Rights Division in the Department of Justice which is to have the use of tens of thousands of FBI agents in getting evidence for prosecution. These agents will be instructed to swarm into the southern states to examine how voters are registered and to determine how election officials apply the eligibility qualifications in each state.

But the exercise of this power need not necessarily be confined to the south. If it is thought to be an effective way to regulate local elections, there is no reason why the same federal authority will not be exercised again in New York City and perhaps in Chicago or Detroit or Kansas City or in any of the other big cities where powerful political organizations and bosses line up the voters and sometimes register them or give them certain rewards as inducements to register and vote.

If the federal government goes into the business of inquiry or supervision, one political party or the other will find it advantageous to demand that the machinery of inspection be used to its own advantage. The end result will be the same as it was 65 years ago. It is strange how often the same mistakes are made in American history!

Baering Down On The News

By Arthur "Bugs" Baer

Outside of bringing over the Saddler Wells Ballet we haven't scored too heavily with London treaties.

The triangular ocean clinic of 1920 resulted in the 5-5-3 ratio between America, England and Japan. It fixed everything except the number of peanuts in a bag. And by 1941 it was as nutritious as cooking with overflow lava.

Kaiser Billhelm was as correct as society dancing when he said treaties were scraps of paper. That's all it took to wrap him up.

We settled trade marks, naturalization, fisheries and et scattera at different times in London. They lasted fairly well like the crease in a bowlegged man's pants.

But the London co-op on amity and commerce of 1794 required a vulcanizing job in 1802 and blew the patch in 1812.

We must have been paper-happy in 1850 when we inked one for mutual peace, friendship and good understanding with the wild men of Borneo. The referee was Winsome Churchill's grandpappy attired in woolsack, ermine tails, strawberry leaves and the ancestral pawn tickets.

Might establish you to know London was used by the five great powers in settling the Belgian question in 1831. And in 1840 Turkey and Egypt shook hands and called it a day.

London or no London we're not scared of Egypt. All a-bombs transported by camel have blown up inside of the first quarter-mile.

Ordinary Housefly Transmits 30 Diseases

By Dr. Theodore R. Van Dellen

We now have proof that the ordinary housefly is capable of transmitting at least 30 diseases. The causative organisms are carried in the gastrointestinal tract and are deposited freely wherever the insect alights. In addition, the outside of the fly is contaminated. Several were captured in a slum area and each was found to harbor up to 3,683,000 bacteria on legs and body.

Among diseases transmitted to man are typhoid and paratyphoid fever, infantile diarrhea, cholera, bacillary dysentery, tuberculosis, conjunctivitis, leprosy, polio, yaws, and amebic dysentery. Luther S. West, in his book, "The Housefly," cites several experiments along this line.

Forty-four per cent of the flies captured in the rooms of typhoid patients proved to be infected with the typhoid germ. The organisms remained alive for six days in the alimentary tract of the insects. Other studies showed that the plague bacillus stayed alive eight days; the polio virus, for 48 hours, and the staphylococcus responsible for food poisoning, eight days.

A fly laden with undulant fever organisms is capable of transmitting the disease for periods up to 96 hours after paying one visit to the source of infection. The germs responsible for bacillary dysentery were isolated from three out of 38 flies captured at a dining room table and from seven out of 36 flies in a hospital ward.

DDT may kill the pest within 30 minutes but it is surprising how many microorganisms it can disseminate before it dies. Flies lead a migratory existence; they wander over an area of five square miles and leave their calling card every 4 1/2 minutes along the way.

Can these pests transmit disease other than by direct contact? Yes. Flies take in food only in liquid state or in a finely divided suspension or emulsion. To facilitate matters, the insects liquify dry food by regurgitating fluid. Thru these shenanigans the housefly spreads infection.

STIFF JOINTS

Mrs. F. writes: I have osteoarthritis and am under treatment by a physician. But a friend is trying to sell me on a regimen of cod liver oil to lubricate the cartilages around the painful joints and to take no fluid with meals. I would like an authoritative answer on this, without prejudice.

REPLY
Cod liver oil was discarded years ago as a remedy for arthritis. The oil does not reach the joints, despite a popular theory to the contrary. There is no advantage to eliminating coffee and other fluids at meal time because the joint condition is not affected by liquids.

CANCER OF LARYNX

D. F. writes: Is there a relationship between excessive talking and singing and cancer of the larynx?

REPLY
No. Individuals who abuse their vocal cords may develop nodules but these are not malignant, as a rule.

John Kasper Is Close Friend Of Ezra Pound, Axis Propagandist

By Drew Pearson

Republican of Minnesota, proposed an amendment to include brothers and sisters in the list of beneficiaries.

Later it developed that Anderson has a brother who has been in a VA hospital since World War I. The Congressman is the brother's guardian and handles his estates.

Note—The bill was beaten. The law now remains as is: The estates of incompetent veterans go to next of kin, no matter who.

Civil Rights Notes

Nine Republicans have notified Senator Knowland they will not vote to shut off the filibuster. The list includes Goldwater (Ariz.), Jenner (Ind.), Young (N. D.), Malone (Neb.), Mundt (S. D.) and Williams (Del.) This means that the filibuster can last interminably unless there's a compromise. Only 60 votes can be raised by Republicans and northern Democrats for cloture—which is far short of the necessary two-thirds.

Knowland has promised to deliver 35 Republican votes against the jury-trial amendment. He has told Senator Douglas of Illinois, the Democratic civil rights leader, that all he needs to do is to raise 15 votes to defeat the jury-trial amendment. Northern Democrats, however, are having trouble finding even 15 Democratic votes. Such Senators as Jackson and Magnuson (Wash.), Mansfield and Murray (Mont.), and O'Mahoney (Wyo) have indicated they will vote with the south for trial by jury. Vice President Nixon has been using his influence with Republicans to stop talk of compromise. He is probably the toughest negotiator for a strong Civil Rights Bill. Southern Senators have agreed to let the debate roll along without any undue obstruction for the first couple of weeks until they see what kind of compromise they are getting. They are convinced they will get some important compromises.

Tax Loopholes

The administration would like to hush it up, but several utility companies have been milking the Federal treasury to pay their stockholders huge, tax-free dividends.

Money that normally would have been paid in taxes went instead to the stockholders under the government's tax-amortization program. The private power companies were granted fast tax write-offs supposedly to encourage industrial expansion for defense purposes. Instead, the companies paid their stockholders handsome dividends.

What's even more amazing, the stockholders didn't pay a penny income tax on these dividends. The companies claimed the money was "returned capital," or in other words, a refund on the original investment. Therefore, the companies contended the dividends were tax-free.

Here is a list of the private power companies that have been paying dividends to the stockholders instead of the tax collectors during the last seven years:

Detroit Edison paid $8,902,795 in tax-free dividends; Pacific Power and Light paid $6,768,491; California Oregon Power, $5,237,211; Hartford Electric, $4,075,016; Southwestern Public Service, $3,994,258; Illinois Power, $2,074,700; Oklahoma Gas and Electric, $1,743,759; Connecticut Light and Power, $1,591,714; Central Louisiana Electric, $1,586,268; Central Hudson Gas and Electric, $1,410,702; Rockland Light and Power, $885,334; Florida Power Corp., $759,996.

All this money, lost to the treasury, must be made up by taxpayers who don't have big corporation lawyers to figure out loopholes for them.

Diplomatic Pouch

UN troops in the Gaza Strip are now so completely under Egypt's thumb that they had to smuggle in new furniture from Israel. They couldn't buy it openly. The Egyptians have forced the UN command to bring all its supplies through Cairo and across the Sinai Desert instead of the short route through Israel. This has run expenses so high that recently UN headquarters secretly bought new furniture in Tel Aviv and smuggled it across the border into the Gaza Strip. . . . King Saud has sent a secret message to President Eisenhower demanding that he keep Israeli ships out of the Gulf of Aqaba. Saud has swung emphatically behind Egypt on this highly explosive issue. He now believes Eisenhower double-crossed him. . . . Premier Ben-Gurion has warned that Dictator Nasser intends to blockade the Gulf of Aqaba with submarines he got from Russia. Ben-Gurion has also warned that such a blockade will mean war. . . . The Egyptians have quietly started building a submarine base in Alexandria, big enough to handle 20 subs. It will fly the Egyptian flag, but will really be a front for the Russian Navy.

How many things have you in your pockets? Following a criticism I made of the number of items the average woman carries in her handbag my girl friend bet me I had more things in my pockets than she had in her handbag. I lost. However, I don't think it was fair for her to insist that a cigar case with six cigars in it should be counted as seven items.

YOUNG OLD TIMER

Do you claim to be a Young Old Timer with a good memory? It so, state quick as a half a flash in what year the stage play titled "You Can't Take It With You" was a hit. It was the same year in which Tallulah Bankhead appeared in "Reflect- ed Glory" and Jimmy Durante, Bob Hope and Ethel Merman were featured in a Cole Porter musical titled "Red, Hot and Blue." Have you guessed the year yet? Well, Bold Venture won the Kentucky Derby that year and Bing Crosby introduced the song "Pennies From Heaven." It was the year Margaret Mitchell wrote "Gone With the Wind." What, you haven't guessed the year yet? I'll make it easy for you. It was the year King Edward VIII of England abdicated and declared he was so doing for the woman he loved.

ASKING

Queries from clients. Q. I measured 30 inches when one year old. I am a girl. How tall will I be as an adult? A. You will probably be about five feet, four as an adult. That's a nice height for a woman if she wears two-inch heels, holds her head up and carries herself well. . . . Q. If our expected child is a girl my wife wants to name her Madge. How many successful women had that name. A. Three successful actresses have had it. Madge Titheradge, Madge Kennedy and Madge Evans. Also a very successful legal light, Judge Madge Taggart.

SIDELIGHTS

Recently reported was a two-car accident on the Lincoln Highway in which seven persons met sudden death. Isn't that a record for number of deaths in a collision between two passenger automobiles? . . . Now there is a non-stop plane from New York City to Copenhagen. Me for that on my next trip to Europe. Copenhagen is one city I want to see before I pass from this vale of tears and taxes.

TATOOED

Ed Gorey, Chicago newspaperman says that in all his 35 years of journalistic experience he never met a man holding a position of trust who had any tattoo marks on him. "Is there any significance to this situation?" asks Ed. I can't answer that query. All I can say is that I also do not recall any successful man who had been tattooed. This item causes me to recall a very amusing song titled "The Tattooed Lady" written by Billy Jerome and Walter Donaldson. It could stand a revival. A good comic song is a rarity nowadays.

JIGGERS

A San Franciscan protests as to that liquor measurement gadget called a "jigger." He says there is too much variation in the capacity of the jigger. That it should be standardized at one ounce. The man's right. The "jigger" in some bars holds about five-eighths of an ounce. The same is true of the jiggers used by the excessively economical hostesses at some cocktail parties. Incidentally, I regret to say I have been reliably informed that quite a few cocktail party hostesses have been watering their liquor. A sad situation. Who can a man really trust these days?

International News Service Sports Writer

NEW YORK, July 23—(INS)—Most American kids start playing baseball not long after they learn to walk. By the time they are 18, some of them are ready to sign bonus contracts with major league clubs at anywhere from $50,000 to $100,000.

Of course, these are youngsters with very unusual natural ability, who have shown they have innate talent which may be developed into future greatness on the diamond.

"That," says Jack Kramer, the professional tennis promoter, "is where Lew Hoad now stands in relation to pro tennis."

As you know Lew is the 22-year-old Australian who accepted Kramer's $125,000 to turn pro.

"This boy," says Kramer, "has all the strokes but he needs polish, just like a rookie ball player. You might call me a Casey Stengel of the tennis courts, because I intend to give him that polish."

Kramer was neither surprised nor discouraged by Hoad's defeat at the hands of Tony Trabert, Ken Rosewall and Pancho Gonzales, in the recent round-robin tournament at Forest Hills. "Those fellows are all former amateur champions," Kramer pointed out, "and they have been toughened in pro company. And I don't forget there never was an amateur champion, including myself, who wasn't improved by playing with the seasoned pros."

Kramer intends to have the same pro troupe playing in his Masters Round-Robin at Los Angeles, July 27-Aug. 4. Thereafter, Hoad will not meet Gonzales again until they open their 100-match tour in Brisbane, Australia, next New Year's day.

Hoad and Gonzales will hit the high spots in Australia and then open their cross-country tour in the United States at Madison Square Garden Feb. 12.

Meanwhile, Hoad's education will start this summer on a tour with Ken Rosewall, Pancho Segura and Kramer that will carry them from the United States through Europe, North and South Africa and might even land them in Asia.

The troupe will play in Memphis Aug. 13 and 14 and start their European tour at Vittet, France, Aug. 17. They will play through France, Holland, Spain, Italy, Sweden and Czechoslovakia until mid-October when they will play Africa for three weeks.

They will continue in Australia from Nov. 28 until Dec. 20 and 10 days later Hoad and Gonzales will start their rivalry at Brisbane.

"By that time," says Kramer, "I'll have Hoad's game polished like a billiard ball and he should be able to meet Gonzales on even terms, might even beat him. That $125,000? Oh, I'll get it all back with interest."

Mantle Hits 3-Run Triple; Homer No. 26

Mickey Gets 4 Hits, Five-Run Explosion In 7th Ruins Sox

NEW YORK, July 23 (P)—Mickey Mantle walloped a tape-measure home run, a three-run triple, a double and a single tonight as New York's first place Yankees moved to a 5½ game lead with a 10-6 victory over the second place Chicago White Sox, who made a fight of it for seven innings on walks and singles.

Mantle, whose triple capped a five-run seventh inning that junked a 6-4 Chicago lead in the opener of this crucial three-game set, became the first American Leaguer to hit for the cycle since June 4, 1952, when Larry Doby, then with Cleveland, did it against Boston.

The 4-for-5 night hoisted Mantle back into the AL lead with a .367 average. Boston's Ted Williams slipped to second at .360 with one hit in three trips against Kansas City.

The Yankees, blowing a 3-0 lead set up on Harry Simpson's two-run homer in the first and Mantle's 26th homer of the year, estimated at 465 feet into the deep right-center field bleachers in the second, leveled the Sox with only three hits in the big seventh.

Barni Signed Redskin Pact Before Death

Contract Arrives After He Was Shot

WASHINGTON, July 23 (P)—Pro football player Roy Barni signed for another season with the Washington Redskins only a few hours before he was shot to death in San Francisco last Sunday night.

Barni's contract arrived at the Redskins' office this morning. It was postmarked 8 p.m., July 21. Later that night the defense half-back was shot outside the tavern he and a brother operated in San Francisco.

The death of Barni was another in a series of tragedies that have struck the National Football League club in recent years.

Tackle Dave Sparks died of a heart attack after a game in 1954. Last season halfback Vic Janowicz was critically injured in an automobile accident near the Redskins' training camp at Los Angeles and had to quit football. Quarterback Al Dorow was hurt in a second crash. Dorow recovered, but his mother-in-law died.

Four years ago on the West Coast tackle Bob Dean escaped injury in still another accident but a girl riding in the car was killed.

BALTIMORE, July 23 (P)—Southpaw Billy Hoeft stopped the Baltimore Orioles 17 hits tonight as the Detroit Tigers won 5-2 and moved two games ahead of Baltimore in the battle for fifth place in the American League.

Hoeft needed relief from Harry Byrd for the final out as Baltimore threatened in the ninth inning.

Red Sox Edge Athletics, 1-0

Consolo's Single Scores Lone Tally

BOSTON, July 23 (P)—Billy Consolo atoned for two fielding lapses by singling home the game's only run as Boston edged Kansas City 1-0 tonight behind the 10-hit pitching of Frank Sullivan.

Four Kansas City runners reached third base but a combination of clutch hurling by Sullivan and timely defensive support choked off the A's threats.

Sullivan, who struck out 9 and walked none, came up with his ninth victory and second shutout of the season.

Even though out, the Red Sox needed an error by the A's to help them push across their unearned tally.

Jackie Jensen singled with one out in the fourth inning. Norm Zauchin followed with what appeared to be a pinch double play ball at Joe DeMaestri but the shortstop threw past Billy Martin into right field.

On the play Jensen moved to third from where he scored when Consolo slammed a single to right to beat pitcher Virgil Trucks.

Podres Wins, Jones Loses Three-Hitter

Brooklyn Southpaw Retires 14 In Row, Notches 8th Victory

ST. LOUIS, July 23 (P)—Brooklyn's Jonny Podres shut out the St. Louis Cardinals with a masterful five-hitter tonight, 1-0, besting Sam (Toothpick) Jones, who gave the Dodgers just three hits.

Podres never before had pitched a complete game in St. Louis, in seven previous tries spread over four seasons. In reversing his luck tonight, for his eighth triumph against three defeats, he allowed only one runner to reach third.

The Dodgers scored their run in the second inning, the one less-than-net frame Jones experienced.

The Dodgers kept their mid-summer pennant drive going. It was their 11th victory in 13 games and kept them a game behind first place Milwaukee.

The Cards threatened only in the first and sixth innings. In between, Podres retired 14 straight batters. In the first, Alvin Dark walked and Stan Musial singled, but Del Ennis and Ken Boyer fled out.

HE RE-GREW HAIR

Before Erickson Treatment A Few Months Later
Thomas A. Melton Jr. of Hollidaysburg, Pennsylvania, (above) shows he re-grew hair by the Erickson Home Treatment method.

Hair Specialists Here Tomorrow; Will Show How To Save Hair and Prevent Baldness

CHICAGO — New home treatment methods for saving hair and improving its growth will be demonstrated in Cumberland, Maryland, on July 25, Thursday only.

Trichologist J. L. Thomas will be in charge, representing the dynamic Erickson Hair & Scalp Specialists organization. He will personally examine hair-worried men and women from 1:00 to 8:30 p.m. tomorrow at the Fort Cumberland Hotel.

At the home office of the Erickson organization, a new, even more successful method of treatment was announced — a treatment that you can easily administer yourself at home.

This new treatment is neither "mail order" nor "cure-all." It is adapted to the individual after a personal examination and progress is checked personally at regular intervals by an Erickson expert.

Who Can Be Helped?

For many years now Erickson Hair & Scalp Specialists have been checking the hair of thousands of people across the country. They have encountered and dealt with hundreds of cases of every kind of hair trouble. From this experience has grown the body of scientific knowledge leading the development of the new Erickson home treatment.

Will the new Erickson treatment cure baldness? "No!" For we cannot help men and women who are slick-bald after years of gradual hair-loss. But if you still have fuzz and your scalp is still creating hair, you can at least save and thicken what you have. Some conditions, such as "spot baldness" usually have complete coverage if caught in time!

Other conditions that usually bring on excessive hair loss — dandruff, itching, over oiliness or dryness, follicle clogged with sebum or seborrhea — can be corrected by the Erickson home treatment if caught before the "hair factories" are destroyed. Evidence of the success of the Erickson method is that the organization has quickly expanded to serve hundreds of cities in 32 states.

The most important thing is: Don't wait until it's too late. Surveys among men and women in all walks of life show that the worst enemies of your hair are (1) skepticism and (2) procrastination. The average balding person justifies his condition with one or the other of these two statements. "I don't think anybody can stop hair loss" — or "Oh, I'm going Baldness won't wait for doubters to be convinced or for procrastinators to take action later. You're going to keep right on losing hair till you're bald . . . unless you get your scalp in healthy, hair growing condition again.

Satisfy 95%

"Actually, our biggest problem is not in doing what we claim," says D. W. Erickson, director of the organization, "for we satisfy at least 95% of our clients which, when you consider that almost every person is a 'doubter' or a 'butter-offer' where hair is concerned, is an excellent showing. Getting these doubters and putter-offers to come in for an examination is really the problem."

Examine You Free

We want to make it clear that you incur absolutely no charge or obligation by coming in for an examination. Your only obligation is to yourself to ease your mind of hair worries by learning how to save and thicken your hair at home. We will tell you frankly and sincerely whether or not you can be helped, how long it will take and how much it will cost. We do not accept cases that will not respond.

Chicago Cubs' Dick Drott Fans 14, Beats Giants, 4-0

Young Hurler Tosses Four Hit Contest

Posts 3rd Shutout, 9th Win, Strikeout Total Soars To 112

CHICAGO, July 23 (AP)—Rookie Dick Drott mowed down the New York Giants with 14 strikeouts today and yielded only four hits in pitching the Chicago Cubs to a 4-0 triumph.

The strapping righthander, recently turned 21, stood the Giants on their heads with his fast ball, fast curve and change up.

Drott, purchased this spring from Los Angeles after he had compiled a 13-10 record and led the Pacific Coast League in whiffs with 184, boosted his strikeout mark for the season to 112 and his won-loss record to 9-8. It was his third shutout.

The former Cincinnati high school and American Legion star nearly matched his 15 strikeouts of last May 26 when he hurled the Cubs to a 7-5 victory over the Milwaukee Braves. The 15 stands as the major league high so far this season, and was only two shy of Dizzy Dean's National League record set in 1933.

The Cubs backed Drott with eight hits off an assortment of four Giant pitchers. They bunched four of them for three runs in the fourth inning that sent Ray Montzant, making his first start, to the showers.

LaVale Winner, 9-2, Over Corriganville

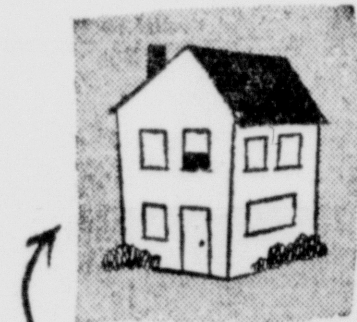

LaVale defeated Corriganville by the score of 9-2 in a Bi-State Pony League game Monday.

The game was transferred to LaVale from Corriganville because of a carnival being held at the latter place.

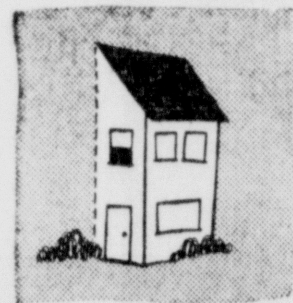

Jim Willets pitched for LaVale and notched his fourth win of the season against two losses. Mickey Scaletta had a perfect day at the plate for LaVale with a homer, triple and two singles to his credit.

The win gave LaVale a 7-10 record. Corriganville has won two games and lost 15.

Murray was the losing pitcher.

Racing In 8 Weeks Bedford Doe Season
Calcutt To Texas Engle Goes To Japan
By C. V. BURNS

HARRY J. BARTON, general manager of the Cumberland Fair Association, reports he has received numerous applications for stall reservations for horsemen for Fairgo's thirty-third annual thoroughbred racing meet which opens just eight weeks from next Monday.

All applications received here are forwarded to J. Fred Colwill, racing secretary, for approval or rejection.

Cumberland's 12-day meeting opens Monday, September 23 and closes Saturday, October 5.

FREDDIE CALCUTT, All-State fullback at Bel Air (Md.) High School last fall, has accepted an athletic scholarship at Texas Tech, according to DeWitt Weaver, head coach and athletic director of the Southwest Conference school.

Calcutt, who scored 147 points for Bel Air last season, won the Harford County and the Dr. Hopkins Athlete-of-the-Year awards.

RECENT DEATH of Henry T. Helker, 78, marked the passing of one of Cumberland's best known sports leaders of almost a half century ago.

In 1910, Helker headed the Cumberland A. C. that won the county baseball championship by winning series from Frostburg and Midland. The series were played for a side bet of $100 and that was "big money" in those days.

George Jordan was secretary and John Roman, treasurer, of the 1910 team whose personnel included Bill and John Marean, Frank "Jock" Lippold and Charles "Hun" Lippold, Russell "Mike" Diehl, Clarence Schafer, George "Sonny" Geatz, Bill Drumm, Dan Tunney, Bill Rank, George "Pickles" Rank and Earl Fuller.

In addition to his baseball interests, Helker helped promote several boxing shows at Miller's Hall, North Centre street.

A NEW West Virginia Conference team will appear on Potomac State's basketball schedule next season. Wheeling College will play the Catamounts at Keyser, December 14, and in Wheeling February 7.

Wheeling was admitted to the WVIC in May.

BEDFORD COUNTY'S quota of licenses for the three-day antlerless deer season, Dec. 16 to 18, has been upped to 4,500, which is 2,000 more than the number allotted for the last doe season in 1955.

Doe licenses go on sale Oct. 7 to Nov. 16 for county residents only. After the latter date remaining licenses will be sold to both county and non-countians.

No hunter may present more than six applications at any one time in the office, under a new state regulation.

THE BEST PITCH in a Little League near Columbus, Ohio, is the sinker.

The young players, raising money to buy baseball uniforms, sold 494 dozen donuts — 5,928 "sinkers"—to raise $100.

THE MT. SAVAGE Old Germans of the Pen-Mar Baseball League own the biggest casualty list of the current season, according to Mary Agnes McGann, the club's official scorer, statistician and publicity agent.

Roy Holt, one of the most promising players in the area this year, suffered a broken foot when he fell in a gopher hole in the outfield.

Dorcil Kline has a broken arm. Don Blank has a broken ankle, the result of sliding into second base.

Reggie Lennox suffered a skull fracture following a collision with a teammate while playing in a Legion game.

DICK BURGOON won his second Blairmont invitational golf tournament at the Altoona-area course the other day, beating Scott Stultz, Hollidaysburg, Pa., 3 and 2, to annex the 21st annual event. He first won the tourney in 1954.

Dick is a son of Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Burgoon, Carlisle, Pa., and is a sophomore at Franklin and Marshall College. He also is a nephew of Mrs. Thomas Gilchrist Jr., of Cumberland.

In a practice round before the tourney got under way, Burgoon shot an amazing 66.

He has won the state junior title and the state Jaycee tourney and participated in the national Jaycee tournament in 1956.

CHARLES "RIP" ENGLE, one of our favorite college football coaches, who hails from Somerset County, Pa., is on his second trip to Japan.

The Penn State mentor is one of the instructors at Armed Service grid clinics being staged there for military personnel.

It was just 27 years ago that "Rip" was named football and basketball coach at Waynesboro (Pa.) High School.

BASEBALL fans may not have noticed it but big league hitters are using lighter bats.

In the last 28 years the average weight of the Louisville Slugger has fallen off about eight ounces.

Because of their lighter weight today's bats can be swung later, giving the batter a split-second longer to judge a curve or slider.

Amateur Federation Recognizes Record Set 18 Years Ago

LONDON, July 23 (AP)—The International Amateur Athletic Federation gave a British woman a world high jump record today—18 years after the jump—upon finding that the former record holder was a man.

Mrs. Dorothy Tyler, 37-year-old London mother and housewife, cleared 5 feet, 5 1/2 inches in May, 1939, at a meet in Brentford, England.

However, a jump the previous September of 5 feet, 5 1/4 inches in Amsterdam by Dora Ratjen of Germany had been ratified.

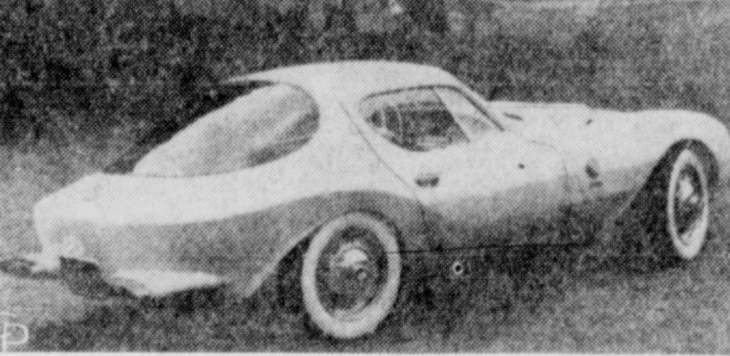

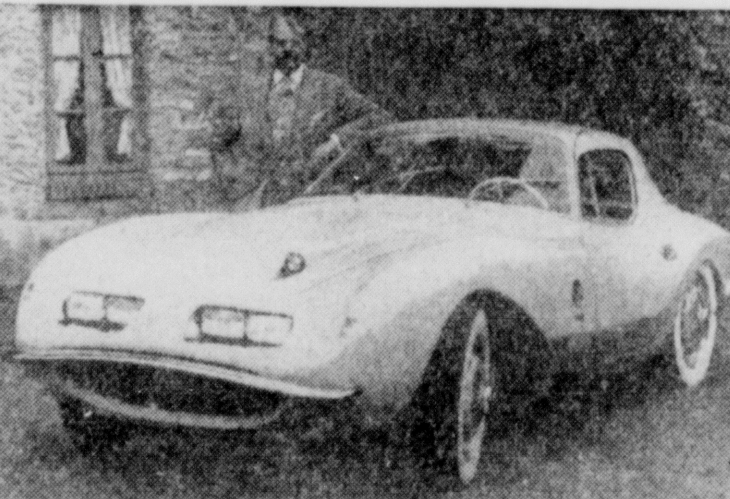

The federation said it later learned that Dora Ratjen was a man—not a woman—and that his name actually was Herman Ratjen. He is now a Hamburg waiter.

Mildred McDaniel of Atlanta, Ga., holds the present world mark of 5 feet, 9 1/4 inches, set at the Melbourne Olympics.

Calumet To Send Three Postward In $50,000 Race

CHICAGO, July 23 (INS)—Calumet Farm will send three top fillies including the fast-pitching Princess Turia postward Wednesday in the 24th running of the $50,000 added Arlington Matron Handicap.

Bill Hartack, America's leading jockey this year, will be aboard Princess Turia which will be top weighted at 124 pounds for the one-mile race.

If all 16 entered start, the race will gross $58,425 with $35,450 going to the winner.

Hartack has won 27 stakes this year totalling $932,000 but has yet to win a big race at Arlington Park.

Calumet Farm also will send Amoret and Miss Arlet postward. Amoret finished second in last year's matron.

Two Argentine horses also will answer the starting bell. Hasty House Farm's Otomana and Marian Van Berg's Estacion will battle for the big first-place prize.

Willie Shoemaker who will fly in from California, will be aboard Mrs. Ada L. Rice's Pucker Up, a top threat to Princess Turia.

$4,500,000 Spent

When the present grandstand remodeling project is completed, Laurel race track will have spent nearly $4,500,000 in improvements since 1951 when the Schapiro family took over the operation of the Maryland plant.

Chicago Will Not Fold In Stretch, Lopez Says

Feels Club Is Ready To Make Big Push For A.L. Pennant

By JOE REICHLER

NEW YORK, July 23 (AP)—Al Lopez, manager of the second place Chicago White Sox, promised today his club will not follow the footsteps of its predecessors and fold in the stretch.

In town for a vital three-game series with the league leading New York Yankees, Lopez expressed pleasure with the way his White Sox have been clinging to the coat tails of the defending champions and said his athletes were physically and mentally ready to make the big push for the American League pennant.

"We've still got a chance," he said, "a good chance. The fellows are confident they can catch the Yankees and so am I. They convinced me by the way they've bounced back every time we've been counted out. I don't say we're going to win but I do say we're going to battle the Yankees right down to the wire."

Four and a half games down, the White Sox will still be a game and a half behind even if they sweep the three-game set. But Lopez has taken heart from the way his club has hung in there despite a Yankee hot streak that produced 18 victories in 21 games up to the All-Star game.

"This is a much better club than last year's," Lopez said. "A year ago the White Sox were only five games above .500, 13 1/2 games in back of the Yankees. Today, we're 20 games above .500 and only 4 1/2 behind. I believe our pitching and defense is just as good, if not better, than the Yankees. If we get some hitting, we'll win."

Players Not Tired

"The White Sox bogged down in the late months in recent years only because of weariness," he said. "No other reason. Mindful of that, I made sure the boys were not overworked during spring training. I used such fellows as not defend her title."

New Champs In Offing

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (AP)—At least three new American tennis champions will be crowned when the Nationals are held at Forest Hills Aug. 30 through Sept. 8.

I used such fellows as not defend her title."

Lence Reports $104,000 Advance Sale For Patterson-Jackson Go

NBC Pays $175,000 For Radio-TV Rights To Monday's Fight

By JACK HAND

NEW YORK, July 23 (AP)—Emil Lence, the new independent fight promoter, claims he has $104,000 in advance sales and predicts a gate of between $300,000 and $400,000 for Monday's heavyweight title match at the Polo Grounds between Champion Floyd Patterson and Tommy (Hurricane) Jackson, the No. 1 contender.

Lence, a dress manufacturer in normal times, is putting in 19-hour days as he combines the dizzy whirl of promoting a major boxing match with his regular business.

Promoted In Brooklyn

"People are calling all the time, wires keep coming in and I must talk to at least 10 newspapermen each day," said Lence in one of his more quiet moments. "I promoted boxing for years at the Eastern Parkway in Brooklyn but it never was like this. That used to take maybe an hour a day."

"Now I'm on the phone all the time, having my picture taken for magazines and trying to nail down all the details. Not that I'm complaining, understand. It's all wonderful. I hope it keeps up."

"I used to have to call the dress buyers. Now they call me to say they'll be in town Thursday or Friday. Everybody is looking for tickets."

Lence started his promotion with a neat little nest egg of $175,000 for the radio-television rights from the National Broadcasting Company. That took care of Patterson's guarantee. The champ has an option of 40 per cent of the gate and Jackson gets 20 per cent.

"It's going so good I'm sure Patterson will take the 40 per cent," said Lence. "Just today we got word of a special plane from Detroit. And the out of town press coverage is going to be very heavy."

Plans Smaller Clubs

Lence says the profits—he doesn't mention the possibility of a loss—will go to help subsidize boxing in the small clubs. He hopes to run two or three clubs in the New York area as "feeders" to his Eastern Parkway arena in Brooklyn which he expects to re-open about Labor Day.

"I am dickering with a television sponsor for a weekly show from the Eastern Parkway," he said. "As of now we expect to run on Tuesday nights starting early in September."

Lence operated at the Parkway with regular Monday shows for about two years. Both Jackson and Patterson were developed in his club. That was one reason Cus D'Amato, Patterson's manager, selected Lence as the man to run the champ's first defense.

Lence said he had a rematch contract with Patterson and Jackson if Jackson should score an upset. The site also would be the Polo Grounds, Sept. 17.

Announce Changes

The City Recreation Department yesterday announced that the Dapper Dan Little League game scheduled today between the Phillies and Athletics at East Side Field has been postponed until Saturday at 9:30 a. m. at the same site.

The Pony League game Saturday between the Mustangs and Colts has been changed from 1:30 p. m. to 10 a. m., at Statcher Field.

Gary Mangus and Jim Hoey held Barton to four hits and struck out eight. Jim Hoey led the attack with four hits — a homer, two doubles and a single. S. Johnson clouted a triple for Barton. A running catch by Snyder in left field of Jim Hartman's line drive was the fielding highlight. Scores:

Ibbotson's Mile Mark Questioned, Pacer Was Used

LONDON, July 23 (AP)—Ratification of Derek Ibbotson's 3:57.2 time as a world mile record was a step closer today despite some complaints the race Friday was not run properly.

Six official witnesses at the White City Stadium have signed necessary forms asking the International Amateur Athletic Assn. for ratification.

However, Walter C. Jewell, vice president of the Amateur Athletic Assn., said he declined to sign the application.

Jewell said he thought Mike Blagrove, a half miler, was used to pace Ibbotson. After the race

Ibbotson admitted he "asked Blagrove to run a fast half mile" before dropping out of the race. Pacing is frowned upon.

Mr. Fitz, 83, Given Party On Birthday

Monmouth Track Honors Trainer

OCEANPORT, N. J., July 23 (AP)—Sunny Jim Fitzsimmons, dean of America's trainers, celebrated his 83rd birthday at Monmouth Park today rooting for a rival, stable.

The sixth race, named the Sunny Jim, was won by D & H Stable's Mr. Seymo under Walter Blum and paid $7.20. Mr. Seymo's trainer, Hugh Fontaine, developer of Needles, was congratulated by Mr. Fitz who commented: "we've been friendly rivals over the years but it's nice to be here today and to root for you."

Amory L. Haskell, president of Monmouth, recalled Mr. Fitz's counsel in the formation of the track's racing policy prior to its opening in 1946, when addressing the more than 60 guests and the trainer's family at a luncheon.

George Jessel, well known stage and screen star, said: "If all the people had the integrity and courtesy of Mr. Fitzsimmons, the world would be a far better place to live in."

Fitzsimmons was presented with a huge birthday card, picturing the trainer cutting his birthday cake, bearing more than 2,000 signatures of officials, trainers, jockeys, press and fans in attendance.

Among those attending the luncheon were Max Hirsch, Jimmy Stout, Jesse Higley, Edward J. Brennan, Philip Iselin, John Turner and Vince Mara.

Lumpe To Return

NEW YORK, July 23 (AP)—The New York Yankees, beset with infield injuries since the All-Star Game break on July 9, recalled Jerry Lumpe from Richmond, their International League farm, today. Lumpe, a shortstop while with the Yankees briefly a year ago, has played third base with the Virginians. He is hitting .298 after 90 games. He reports tomorrow.

DiMag Will Play

NEW YORK, July 23 (INS)—The New York Yankees reported tonight that Joe DiMaggio will make a trans-Atlantic round trip today to play in next Saturday's oldtimers' game at Yankee Stadium.

Yankee officials said a cable it will be hard for the winner of next Monday's night's title bout between Patterson and Jackson to Godge a challenge by the West Coast Europe next Sunday or Monday.

Machen, Baker Clash Tonight

CHICAGO, July 23 (AP)—Undeclared Eddie Machen, winner of 21 consecutive pro bouts, risks his high heavyweight ranking against dangerous Bob Baker at the Chicago Stadium tomorrow night.

The bout which will be televised nationally (ABC-9 p.m., EST) could be a clincher in Machen's bid for a shot at Floyd Patterson's heavyweight title.

Machen, 25-year-old San Francisco protege of Sid Flaherty, who managed for m e r middleweight champion Carl (Bobo) Olson, is ranked No. 2 contender behind Tommy (Hurricane) Jackson in ratings of both the National Boxing Assn. and Ring magazine.

If Machen, a 3-1 choice, brushes aside the bulky, but agile Baker, it will be hard for the winner of next Monday's night's title bout between Patterson and Jackson to Godge a challenge by the West Coast Europe next Sunday or Monday.

Market Mixed On Lightest Turnover Since June 27

NEW YORK, July 23 (AP)—The stock market slipped further into the doldrums today with prices mixed on the lightest turnover since June 27.

Volume dwindled to 1,840,000 shares compared with 1,950,000 yesterday.

A drop in second quarter earnings for Republic Steel and Ford Motor Co. was dampening to investors' sentiment. But the rise in steel output for the third straight week and the increase in national production to a new record in the second quarter were items on the more positive side.

Chrysler was the most active stock, up 1½ at 81½ on 43,800 shares. Second was Sunbeam, off ½ at 12½ on 40,100 shares. Third was Schering, off 4½ at 85½.

Among gainers were Jones & Laughlin ¾, Goodrich 1¼, Anaconda ¾, American Cyanamid ½, Union Carbide ¾, Southern Railway ¾ and Superior Oil of California 2½.

Among losers were International Business Machines 6¼, Republic Steel ¾, Ford ¾, Caterpillar 1¼, Kennecott ¾, International Paper 1, Royal Dutch ¾ and Du Pont 1¼.

Two persons remain in a local hospital after eating food believed to be tainted at a wedding reception on Saturday in the Mt. Savage Fire Hall.

Attaches at Sacred Heart Hospital here report both Joseph Reagan and Mrs. Doris Crowe, both of Mt. Savage, in "improved" condition.

Meanwhile four other persons were released, from Miners Hospital in Frostburg where they were admitted after becoming ill after eating portions of the food.

The reception was in honor of Miss Rosalie McKenzie and Winston Devore who were married in St. Patrick's Catholic Church at Mt. Savage.

The couple returned Monday from their honeymoon, unaware that any of the guests had become ill. They themselves suffered no ill effects.

Opening lead: Seven of diamonds.

Today's hand was selected from our old archives and features one of the finest defensive swindles we have ever run across. Declarer started out with the potential for taking all 13 tricks, assuming he correctly guessed the spade holding. East's resourcefulness reduced this to eight.

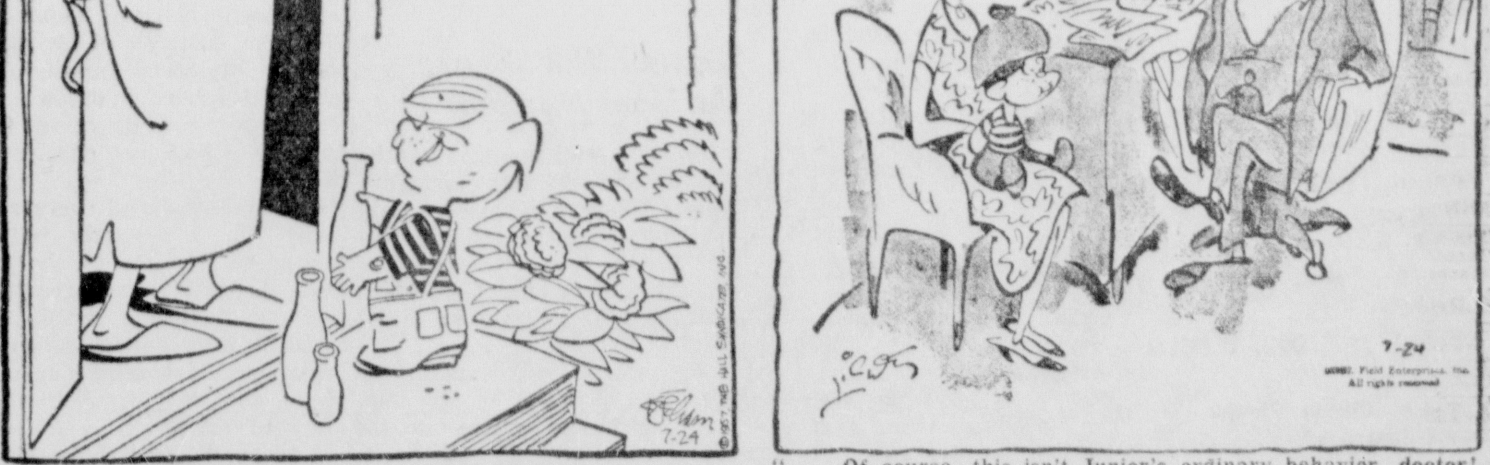

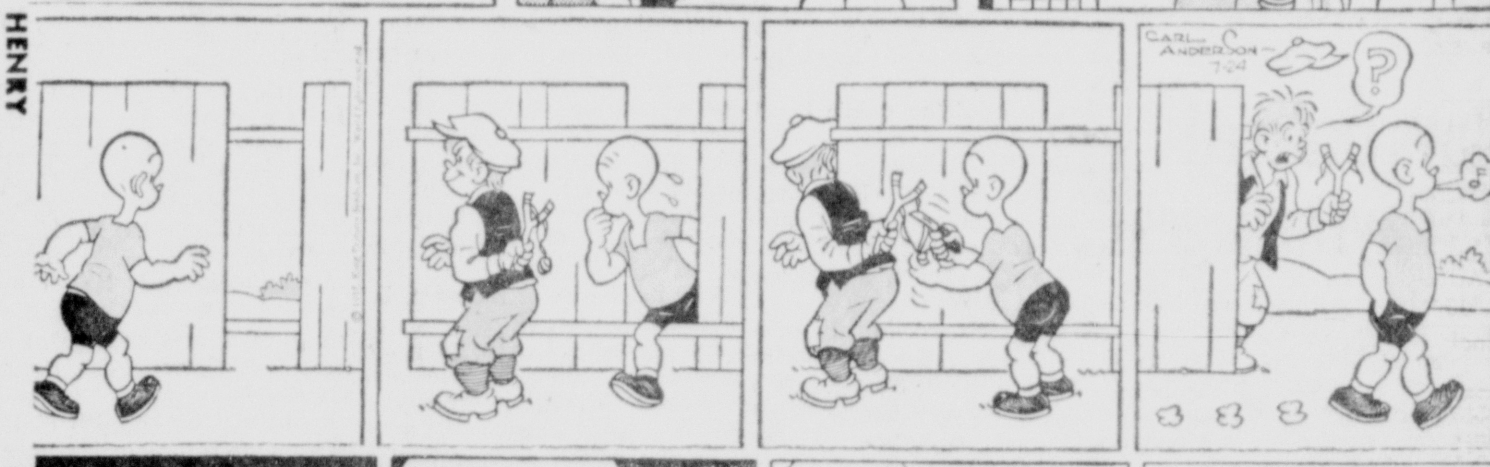

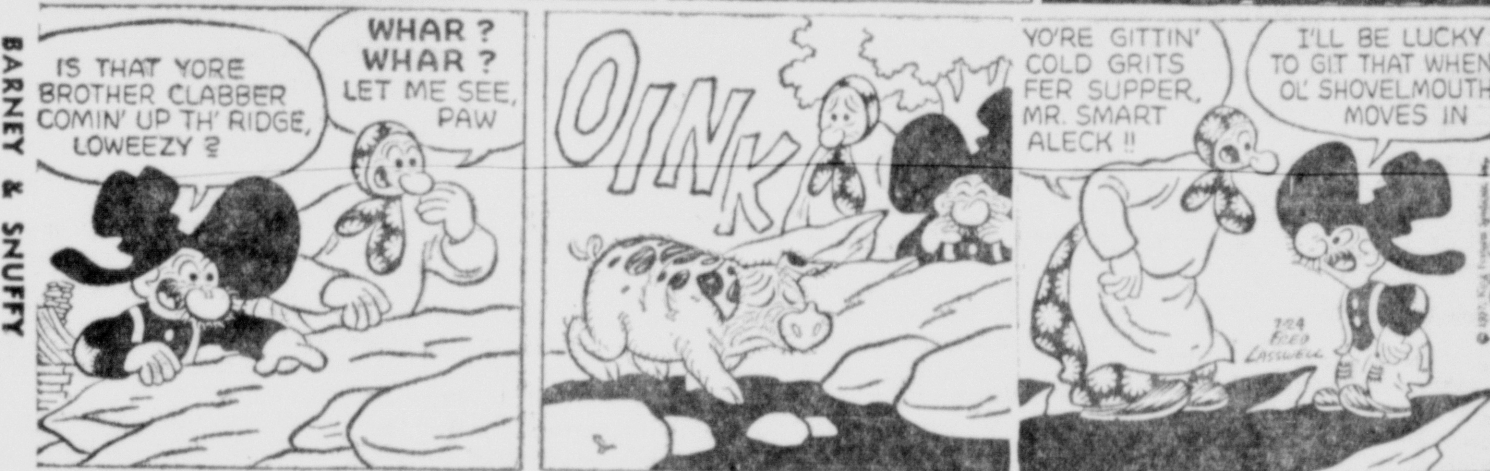

The North-South pair reached a game contract in hearts though it seems that more aggressive treatment might have been accorded the holding. It will be noted that a slam in hearts is a distinct favorite, depending for fulfillment primarily on a normal 3-2 trump break.

West opened the seven of diamonds and South ruffed away East's ace. Since he had not contracted for slam, South decided to play the hand safely for 10 tricks.

His plan was to cash both the ace of spades and the ace of clubs and then make all his trumps separately by ruffing three clubs in the dummy. There was no danger of an overruff, in as much as all of declarer's trumps were high.

Accordingly, he cashed the ace of spades and East, who had been doing some thinking during declarer's opening monolog and had reached the conclusion that there was no legitimate way to beat the hand, placidly dropped the king.

This "stroke of fortune" induced declarer to alter his plan of campaign. He saw now that 12 tricks were apparently available to him: five hearts in his own hand, five spades, the ace of clubs and a club ruff in dummy. He therefore cashed the ace of clubs and ruffed a low club with the ace of trumps. He then drew the remaining trumps, displaying two low diamonds from dummy, and confidently finessed the nine of spades. When East took in the trick with his ten, declarer was out of trumps, and darkness descended.

Drought Ends As Rain Falls In District

Today To Be Clear, Cooler

Well over an inch of rain fell in Cumberland and area yesterday as intermittent showers brought relief to sun-parched lawns, gardens and truck farms.

No one seemed to complain of the welcome rain which broke a two-week drought in the district. But Southern Maryland and the Eastern Shore, where rain is needed most, hardly got enough to settle the dust.

The rains came to Cumberland about 7:05 a. m., and by 6 p. m. a total of 1.10 inches had fallen. Robert R. Golden, weather observer at Constitution Park, said there was not much runoff and the ground quickly soaked up the water.

Last "Soaker" Was June 11

He pointed out that the showers came in from the northwest. A slight rise in the Potomac River was noted and the river was up about four inches by 6 p. m.

The last soaking rain in Cumberland was on June 11, when 1.19 inches fell.

In nearby Garrett County the rain began falling about two hours before it reached Cumberland. Ralph E. Weber, official weather observer at Oakland, said 1.15 inches of rain had fallen.

Temperatures ranged in the mid-60s there, quite a drop from scorching temperatures in the past few days. Yesterday's rain was the first heavy rain in Garrett County since July 9, when 0.89 inches fell.

A hard downpour hit Cumberland about 2:30 p. m. yesterday and lasted for about half an hour, filling the gutters along the downtown streets.

The skies remained overcast last night which indicated more rain might fall. But the Weather Bureau predicts clearing weather today, with temperatures ranging from 74 to 80 degrees in Western Maryland.

The rain yesterday came after a 14-day dry spell. Up until yesterday only 0.27 inches of rain had been recorded here for the month of July.

Cloud Seeding Debated

The State Board of Public Works is looking into the possibility of using cloud seeding to help bring rain to drought-stricken areas.

The board named a committee to study the possibility and make a prompt report. In cloud seeding, dry ice is dumped into clouds to make them produce rain. One of the committeemen, Herbert L. Alkire, head of the U. S. Weather Bureau at Friendship Airport, said the American Association of Meteorologists has never given its unqualified approval to the cloud seeding procedure, particularly in level, lowland areas.

The official high temperature in Cumberland yesterday was 72 degrees and the low reading was 66. The unofficial temperature here at 8 p. m. yesterday was 70 degrees.

Boys Ordered To Pay Damages

Four boys ranging in age from 10 to 12 years, were given a stern lecture by Magistrate Fred H. Anderson in Juvenile Court yesterday after they admitted breaking windows and glass in a building on Winew Street.

The four had on several occasions thrown marbles through the glass windows, Magistrate Anderson said. He ordered them to pay for the damage.

Magistrate Anderson also held a hearing yesterday for a 17-year-old girl who had been detained for several days in the detention home at Allegany County Infirmary.

The girl, along with another 14-year-old girl, was being held as a runaway. Both had caused some damage to the detention home during their stay, he said.

The 17-year-old girl was turned over to a foster home under the care of the Allegany County Welfare Board, Magistrate Anderson said, after she had promised the court not to run away or cause any more trouble.

He said a hearing for the 14-year-old girl will be held today or tomorrow.

Drought Committee Turns Optimistic As Rain Falls

Meeting yesterday during July's first soaking rain, the Allegany County drought emergency committee turned optimistic and decided not to ask the State USDA disaster committee to declare this county a

County To Give Some $3,600 To United Fund

Three Agencies Write Commissioners

In its first fund-raising campaign the County United Fund will receive at least $3,600 from the Allegany County Board of Commissioners, William H. Lemmert, board president, indicated yesterday afternoon.

Yesterday the county commissioners received letters from three charitable organizations which in the past fiscal year got a total of $3,600 from the county commissioners. The letters all informed the commissioners that the three formerly separate agencies will be a part of the United Fund when the 1957-58 campaign gets underway.

The letters were from Lewis J. Ort, president of the Cumberland Community Chest; C. M. Sanner, chairman of the Allegany County Chapter, American Red Cross; and William C. Walsh, a director of the Allegany County Chapter of the Maryland Chapter of the Rheumatism and Arthritis Foundation.

No Chest Drive

Mr. Ort explained that the Community Chest will not conduct a fund-raising campaign this year, but all of the Chest member agencies are now connected with the United Fund.

Mr. Sanner wrote that the Red Cross board has taken preliminary steps to join the United Fund. He asked that the funds normally earmarked for the Red Cross go to the United Fund for next year.

Mr. Walsh stated that the Maryland Chapter of Rheumatism and Arthritis Foundation has authorized the Allegany County Chapter to join the County United Fund and suggested that any funds the county planned to give the foundation should go to the United Fund.

During the fiscal year which ended June 30, the Community Chest got $2,000, Red Cross $1,000 and the Rheumatism and Arthritis Foundation $600. The rest of the $3,600 donated to charitable agencies in the past fiscal year included $1,000 to the League for Crippled Children, $600 to the Rheumatic Fever and Heart Association, $500 to the Tuberculosis Association and $300 to the Cancer Crusade. These agencies either have not decided whether to join the United Fund or not or have decided against the merger.

$6,500 Set Aside

Commissioner Lemmert said that for the current fiscal year a $6,500 budget has been set aside for these charitable agencies. That included the same amounts the seven received in the 1956-57 fiscal year, plus $500 for Friends Aware of Handicapped Children.

Section 70 of the Public Local Laws of Allegany County authorized the county commissioners to levy annually and collect from the assessable property in Allegany County, as other taxes are levied and collected, a sum not to exceed $6,000.

At the last session of the General Assembly, Senator Charles M. See introduced SB 258, which increased from $6,000 to $7,000 the amounts to be paid by Allegany County to various charities. It provided for payment of at least $500 of the additional $1,000 to Friends Aware of Handicapped Children.

Mr. Lemmert explained that SB 258 is only an enabling act insofar as the $7,000 total is concerned and the county commissioners decided to budget only $6,500 for charities, including $500 for Friends Aware, in the current fiscal year.

Wage Talks Progressing

Progress was being made here yesterday in wage negotiations between Local 26, Rubber Workers Union, and the Kelly-Springfield Tire Company.

James Stein, president of the local, said the company and union are a "little apart yet" but will go back into negotiations this morning.

The wage talks, which began July 8, are being accelerated as a result of the announcement that the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company and the Rubber Workers Union have agreed on a 15-cent wage package.

The Goodyear settlement is expected to set a pattern for the local plant and for other members of the rubber industry's Big Four.

Employers Must File Quarterly Tax Forms

Every employer required to withhold income tax from wages, or who is liable for F.I.C.A. taxes, must make a quarterly return to the Director of Internal Revenue unless the wages are for agricultural labor, James E. Robertson, manager of the local office of the Social Security Administration, said yesterday.

The report now due covers the April, May and June quarter of 1957.

It is important that every employer file a quarterly return completely and accurately because it provides the necessary wage information to enable the Social Security Administration to determine the benefits due employees and their families when the need arises.

A necessary part of the quarterly return is the listing of the Maryland Sump 13 of the OX5 Club of America will hold the one-day business meeting and banquet at the Algonquin Hotel, according to Fire Chief Virgil A. Parker, director for Allegany and Garrett counties.

The activities will get under way at 6 p. m. at the local hotel. The OX5 Club, Chief Parker said, is a national organization made up of oldtimers in the aviation world who in their earlier days flew aircraft powered by the famous Curtiss OX5 engine, a V-type, 90-horsepower, water-cooled, 375-pound chugger that served America well.

Chief Parker, who is one of Cumberland's early flyers, extends a hearty welcome to all persons who flew OX5-powered aircraft, to all persons engaged in the aviation business and to all aviation enthusiasts who would care to join in the August 3 meeting.

The president of the Maryland Sump of the OX5 Club of America is J. Earl Steinhauer, assistant to the vice president and general manager of Fairchild Aircraft, Hagerstown. A flyer of 34 years' experience, he will speak to the dinner guests about the aims and purposes of the OX5 Club.

Chief Parker pointed out yesterday that a great many men learned to fly with that type of engine, which powered the Jenny, during World War I.

Some of the engines are still in existence, he added. Each state in the nation has a "Sump," which is named from that part of the OX5 engine which holds the oil.

This is the first time that a state meeting has been held in Cumberland. Headquarters for the Maryland Sump is Hagerstown. Chief Parker said all pilots who soloed an OX5-powered aircraft prior to 1940 are invited to attend the meeting and be interviewed for an application to join.

Convictions Of Three Men Are Upheld

Convictions of three men on charges of disturbing the peace in the vicinity of Baltimore and Henderson avenues were upheld yesterday by Chief Judge George Henderson, who heard their appeals in Allegany Circuit Court.

Two of the three, Marvin Alt of Flintstone and John Darr of this city, also were found guilty on drunk charges. Ray Arnold, Hedgesville, W. Va., was charged only with disturbing the peace.

The three were tried July 15 by Trial Magistrate J. Milton Dick who ordered Alt and Darr to serve 70-day sentences in the County Jail and Arnold a 60-day sentence in default of payment of fines. They appealed.

Judge Henderson imposed the same penalties on the three men. All three were fined $100 each on the peace disturbance charge, in default of which they are to serve 60 days in the County Jail. Alt and Darr also drew another $10 fine or 10 days more in jail, to be served consecutively with the 60 days.

The sentences will be dated from July 15, when they were arrested by Police Officers John W. Snyder and Warren G. Brehm, upon the complaint of Mrs. Angela, who lives near where the disturbance allegedly occurred. She said the men had been making loud and profane noises on a parking lot from 7 a. m. until noon. Arnold denied the charge, contending that he had not been freed from the City Jail until 10 a. m. that day.

City Attorney Thomas B. Finan prosecuted and Edward J. Ryan served as attorney for the three defendants.

The grand jury opened the July term of Mineral County Circuit Court at Keyser, returning six felony true bills and five misdemeanors. Among the five misdemeanor true bills returned were two charges of involuntary manslaughter by automobile.

Killed in the accident was John Freeman Welsh, 33, of Keyser, who died several hours later in Potomac Valley Hospital. Still a patient in the hospital with injuries sustained in the accident is Ernest Riggelman, 60, of near Fort Ashby.
